UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : SAC, Albany

FROM : Director, FBI (100-448910)

SUBJECT: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY
INTERNAL SECURITY

DATE: 9/10/73

This letter pertains to predication for investigation of captioned organization and its leaders and activists as required by the revised Section 87 of the Manual of Instructions

Predication for Investigation of Organization:

This investigation is based on information indicating that captioned organization is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, U. S. Code 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection), 2384 (Seditious Conspiracy), 2385 (Advocating Overthrow of the Government) and 2101 (Antiriot Laws).

Youth International Party (YIP) came into existence in 1968 for the purpose of staging a massive youth festival in late 1968 in Chicago, Illinois, to coincide with the Democratic National Convention (DNC). Leaders, in its early history, included Jerry Clyde Rubin and Abbott Howard Hoffman, both of whom were convicted (later overturned by U. S. Court of Appeals) of violation of the Antiriot Laws during disturbances at the above 1968 DNC. In 7/70, YIP distributed "YIP Manifesto," which was basically an antiestablishment, revolutionary pronouncement urging the youth of the United States to repudiate competitive enterprise and established institutions in favor of creating a utopian socialistic society permitting complete individual freedom of choice. Since its inception, when issues of considerable radical-revolutionary interest have arisen, YIP has demonstrated its ability to assemble large numbers of zealous individuals for demonstrations and protests, a number of which have resulted in violence and arrests. During a public speech in 4/72, when referring to the then forthcoming national political conventions, YIP leader Rubin stated "We will dump the convention into the sea and use other methods than the electoral process to change the United States of America." Re: Youth International Party

[redacted] On 7/6/73, [redacted] was described as having a propensity for instigating and directing revolutionary acts of violence.

Apparently because of prosecutive action taken against Rubin and Hoffman (who have drifted away from the YIP) and others including [redacted] YIP leaders are currently avoiding flamboyant revolutionary public statements. The organization continues, however, to engage in demonstrations during which individual YIP anarchistic activists and leaders advocate violent actions and confrontations with authorities in an attempt to build revolutionary fervor among young people. Examples of this activity took place during the 8/72 Republican National Convention (RNC) and the 7/4/73 YIP demonstration in Washington, D. C. During the RNC, [redacted] then members of a YIP faction calling itself YIP-Zippie, were arrested on [redacted] [redacted] Trial judge subsequently rendered a directed verdict of acquittal in this matter based on the ground that no reasonable interpretation could be made bringing the evidence within the scope of the National Firearms Act. YIP is currently headquartered in New York.

Predication for Investigation of Leaders and Activists:

This investigation is based on information which indicates that subject is engaged in activities which could involve violations of Title 18, U. S. Code 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection), 2384 (Seditious Conspiracy), 2385 (Advocating Overthrow of the Government) and 2101 (Antiriot Laws).

Set forth the information which indicates the subject is engaged in activities which could involve violations of the above-enumerated statutes.

The above paragraph should be followed by the description of the YIP set forth above.

Investigative Guidelines:

It is noted that YIP is a nonmembership-type organization. Mere attendance by an individual at YIP functions not related to violent activities or inclusion of an individual's name on a YIP mailing list is insufficient basis to warrant an investigation. If a particular subject is functioning in a leadership position or, in connection with a YIP function, is an active participant or promoter of violent-type activity which could be in violation of Federal statutes, that subject should be considered an activist and the predication stated above should be utilized. If available information does not clearly indicate a particular subject to be a leader or activist, but identifies the subject as being in attendance at YIP functions where violent-type activities, possibly in violation of Federal statutes, occur or are encouraged, a preliminary inquiry should be conducted into that subject's background and activities. The purpose of this inquiry is to determine subject's exact relationship with the YIP organization and to ascertain whether he is a leader or activist engaged in conduct which could be in violation of Federal statutes. This inquiry should be limited to a check of office indices, informants and established sources, and should be handled promptly to resolve the matter. Pertinent information should be furnished Headquarters in a form suitable for dissemination under that individual's caption, along with a recommendation as to additional action deemed necessary.

Predication for Preliminary Inquiry of Subjects to Determine if They are Leaders or Activists:

A preliminary inquiry has been initiated concerning the subject for the purpose of determining if the subject is a leader or activist involved in YIP activities which could involve violations of Title 18, U. S. Code 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection), 2384 (Seditious Conspiracy), 2385 (Advocating Overthrow of the Government) and 2101 (Antiriot Laws).

Set forth the information which indicates the subject is engaged in activities which could involve violations of the above-enumerated statutes.

The above paragraph should be followed by the description of the YIP set forth above.

Volume I, Number 8, an undated but recent issue of the "Yipster Times" (YT) (official publication of the YIP), contains an article on pages 4 and 5 captioned "The Federal Bureau of Intimidation" which charges "The FBI has been conducting a counterinsurgency campaign against Yipster Times, visiting subscribers and organizers." Said article notes that the FBI is "out to smash the revolution" and instructs readers to be uncooperative with the FBI if contacted and in general contains a vulgar, scurrilous attack on the FBI and law enforcement.

Said article concludes by noting that "YIP is considering filing a class-action suit against the FBI for harassing YT subscribers. If you have been visited, called, tailed, or inquired about by the Federal Bureau of Intimidation (the U.S. version of the Russian Brain Police - the KGB), you can give a full accounting as to what happened to us. We can be contacted at Box 392, Canal Street Station, New York, New York 10013." It is noted Box 392, Canal Street Station, New York, New York, is the mailing address of YIP in New York City.

Concerning the foregoing, it is noted that on 1/14/74 the Cleveland, Philadelphia and St. Louis Offices were contacted by an individual identifying himself as [REDACTED] a "New York Post" reporter, who claimed to be writing an article concerning the "Yipster Times." During these

In a recent issue of "Yipster Times," official publication of the YIP, an article appears captioned "The Federal Bureau of Intimidation." The article indicates the FBI has been conducting a counterinsurgency campaign against the "Yipster Times." The article claims the FBI is visiting subscribers and organizers and that the FBI is out to smash the revolution and instructs readers to be uncooperative with the FBI. In general, the article contains a vulgar, scurrilous attack on the FBI and law enforcement.

The article also indicates the YIP is considering a class-action suit against the FBI for harassing "Yipster Times" subscribers.

The "Yipster Times" asks that if visited by the FBI, an account be sent to them at its New York City address.

There is one who claims to be a "New York Post" reporter, supposedly writing an article concerning the "Yipster Times." He has contacted the Cleveland, Philadelphia, and St. Louis Offices.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY,
ALSO KNOWN AS YIPPIES

An underground press service in March, 1968, publicly announced that the Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, was formed in New York City (NYC) on January 16, 1968, for the purpose of staging a massive youth festival in late August, 1968, in Chicago, Illinois, to coincide with the Democratic National Convention. Leaders in its early history included JERRY CLYDE RUBIN and ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN, both of whom were convicted (later overturned by U.S. Court of Appeals) of violation of the Antiriot Laws during disturbances at the above 1968 Democratic National Convention.

In July, 1970, YIP distributed "YIP Manifesto" which urged the youth of the United States to repudiate competitive enterprise and established institutions in favor of creating a utopian socialistic society permitting complete individual freedom of choice.

On occasion, YIP demonstrated its ability to assemble large numbers of zealous individuals for demonstrations and protests, a number of which have resulted in violence and arrests.

YIP leader JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, highlighting YIP's commitment to violence, noted during an April, 1972, public speech (concerning the then forthcoming national political conventions) "We will dump the convention into the sea and use other methods than the electoral process to change the United States of America". Information received from a number of sources indicates that in most cases YIP leaders currently avoid flamboyant revolutionary public statements. The organization continues, however, to engage in demonstrations and hold meetings during which individual YIP activists and leaders advocate violent actions and confrontations with authorities as well as support for other violent revolutionary organizations.

TO : SAC, Albany

DATE: 9/9/74

FROM : Director, FBI

SUBJECT: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)
INTERNAL SECURITY

As recipients are aware, investigation of captioned organization is premised upon the fact that its activities could involve violations of Federal statutes concerning rebellion or insurrection, seditious conspiracy, advocating overthrow of the Government and antiriot laws.

A review of YIP activities during the past six months shows a general absence of revolutionary actions and statements and indicates the major thrust of YIP activities has been aimed at legalizing marijuana and impeaching former President Nixon. In view of the foregoing, FBIHQ memorandum dated 8/14/74 called the attention of the Department to the lack of revolutionary actions and statements on the part of YIP during the past six months and advised the Department that in the absence of Departmental instructions to the contrary, no further investigation would be conducted regarding YIP organization and subversive matter investigations of individual YIP activists would be conducted only where warranted by the individual's subversive activities exclusive of YIP affiliation.

In view of the foregoing, no further investigation should be conducted regarding above organization and additional investigation of YIP activists should only be conducted where such action is warranted by activities unrelated to YIP. Recipients insure informants remain alert for any information concerning subversive activities of this organization or its activists, upon receipt of which same should be furnished FBIHQ by appropriate communication together with recommendations regarding whether or not such activities bring this organization within the purview of the statutes noted supra.

You may reproduce instant communication as necessary, to implement above change in investigative policy concerning captioned organization.

The Bureau has advised that review of YIP activities during the past 6 months has shown an absence of revolutionary actions and indicates the major thrust has been aimed at legalizing marijuana and impeaching former President NIXON. No investigation should, therefore, be conducted concerning YIP organizations or individual YIP activists, unless the individual's subversive activities, exclusive of YIP affiliation, indicate recent activity justifying investigation. Informants, however, should remain alert for any information concerning subversive activities of the YIP organization or its members, and if any information is received, it should be furnished FBIHQ by appropriate communication with a recommendation whether this information brings this organization within the purview of statutes justifying investigation.

The enclosed list lacks several pages of names included in reNF mailing list; however, certain additional names are included on the enclosed list. Specifically not included in reNF mailing list were addresses in Mississippi and Missouri. Each receiving Office is requested to review the enclosed list for any additional names in their respective divisions.

For the information of those Offices not receiving referenced communications, YIP held a National Congress or Conclave in Columbus, Ohio, 11/22-25/72, attended by approximately 60 representatives from across the country. Among matters discussed during the Congress was the need for YIP to organize into local collectives; the necessity for a national YIP organization, and the need to make the public aware of the "radical movement".

During the protest activities in Washington, D.C., at the Presidential Inauguration, 1/20/73, YIP held a meeting which was chaired by [redacted] who is regarded as a national YIP theoretician. During the meeting [redacted] stressed the need for YIP chapters to organize on the local level. [redacted] stated each chapter should be autonomous, and a national organization is necessary only to announce national demonstrations.

YIP in New York City (NYC) is headquartered at [redacted]
Many YIP activities appear through the "Yipster Times", a YIP publication originating from P.O. Box 384, Staten Island, NY.

YIP is described as a loosely-knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in NYC in January, 1968. In May, 1972, a faction known as Zippies came into being.

In reBuairtel, recipients were advised as follows:

Each Office is instructed to review indices concerning names of individuals from respective areas appearing in referenced Norfolk communication. Advise headquarters, under the YIP caption, of the results of this review concerning each individual. If the individual is currently under investigation, or if your review is negative, or if available information indicates that a security type investigation should be conducted, so state, and no additional comment need be made. Should your review determine some subversive information, but not sufficient to institute a security investigation, summarize pertinent information available to your Office concerning each such individual. Headquarters will then review indices in each instance to determine if additional information is available, and, where warranted, will initiate necessary communication to have appropriate field division open a security type investigation.

"Abbie Hoffman, who with Rubin drew a five-year prison sentence for inciting to riot during the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago, is also in the delegation but, it was explained at the news conference, did not appear because of bronchitis. Both men are on bail pending appeals and said they were allowed to travel to countries that have extradition agreements with the United States."

NY T-20 advised on November 4, 1970, that ABBIÉ HOFFMAN and his wife, ANITA HOFFMAN, returned to their residence at 114-116 East 13th Street, New York City on the afternoon of October 30, 1970, from their recent European trip.

The source advised that the November 4, 1970, issue of the Dutch daily news "Het Parool" contained an item which said that a "pact" had been signed by Youth International Party and the Amsterdam Goblins in Amsterdam, Netherlands, on November 3, 1970. A number of representatives of the "Yippie" Party, a movement described as having been inspired by the earlier "Provo" movement in the Netherlands, was making a good will tour of Europe and it stopped in Amsterdam to sign the pact which was called, "International Pact of the Strategy of Civil War." ~~(S)~~

The press notice said that the pact would result in the "bomb bursting on May 1, 1971, when an international action which is to change everything will be started." It said, "We unite against bankers, the generals and the pigs." Signatories to this pact included [redacted]

The "Sunday Star-Ledger", a Newark, New Jersey newspaper, in its November 8, 1970 issue contained an article entitled, "Yippies, Led by Rubin, Drive Frost Off Stage".

This article which is datelined "London (UPI)" stated in part as follows:

"David Frost, the British-American television personality, was driven from the stage of his telecast show last night by his guest, Jerry Rubin, and a group of other hippies from the audience.

"On a signal from Rubin, cofounder of the Youth International Party (Yippies), about 20 youths in hippie garb dashed onto the stage and began squirting a water pistol at Frost, scattering flower petals and shouting obscenities.

"Frost stood up and stalked away from the stage, muttering 'I think I had better move away' as the television cameras broadcast the incident live throughout Britain.

"The hippies began jeering Frost when he walked into the audience, sat down in a vacated seat and attempted to continue the interview from there.

"American author and playwright Robert Ardrey, who was in the audience waiting to go on stage as Frost's next guest, stood up and shouted back at the hippies.

NY 100-162260

"I have never seen such an infantile performance", said Ardrey, an authority on anthropology and author of 'African Genesis', a bestselling essay on the development of man.

"After a commercial break, Frost and Ardrey left the studio for a few minutes. When they returned, Rubin and the other hippies had left. The audience applauded when Frost reappeared.

"A network spokesman said police arrived at the studio as a result of numerous telephone calls from viewers complaining about the hippies' actions and language before the cameras. He said the hippies left quietly, however, and no arrests were made."

"The Record", a Bergen County, New Jersey daily newspaper, in its November 9, 1970 issue on page 10, contained an article entitled, "Hippies Were Roused To Anger When Frost Refused A 'Joint'".

This article which was datelined "London (UPI)", stated in part as follows:

"Perhaps it would never have happened if David Frost had agreed to smoke pot with Jerry Rubin.

"Rubin, a founder of the American Youth International (Yippie) party, had just lighted a cigarette on Frost's live British television program Saturday evening.

"Laughing, he offered it to the British-born master-of-ceremonies, suggesting it was a marijuana and would do them both good. Frost smiled and shook his head, turned it down.

"That did it. At a nod from Rubin about 20 hippies rose in the studio audience and advanced on the stage, sprinkling flower-petals and uttering four-letter obscenities as they came.

NY 100-162260

"Millions watched as the shaggy-haired Rubin, free on bail pending appeal of his conviction for inciting to riot while a defendant at the 'Chicago Seven' trial, puffed on his cigarette and laughed. Frost made his way to a seat in the audience.

"Rubin told Frost he and his followers wanted to topple Western society and replace it with one not oriented to money.

" 'If you're so much against money', Frost asked, controlling his temper, 'why did you demand twice the fee we normally pay guests for appearing on the show?'

" 'Why not' Rubin said, 'We're going to use it to buy bombs to destroy your society'.

" 'I suspect this has turned out as the most powerful commercial for law and order', Frost said. 'I don't think Jerry Rubin made too many converts tonight' ".

The "Daily News", a New York City daily newspaper, in its November 12, 1970 issue on page 85, contained an article entitled, "Britain Tells Yippie To Split".

This article which is datelined "London, November 11," stated as follows:

"Jerry Rubin, the American yippie leader whose band of hairy, cursing followers took over David Frost's live television show last weekend, must leave Britain tomorrow.

"Home Secretary Reginald Maudling told the House of Commons today that Rubin's seven-day visa, which expires tomorrow, will not be extended. Maudling also announced that he is investigating how Rubin, convicted on charges stemming from the riots at the 1968 Democratic National Convention in Chicago, was allowed entrance into the country in the first place."

NY 100-162260

"On the Frost show, the yippie group yelled obscenities and forced the show to move to another studio. They offered Frost what they said were marijuana cigarettes. A police search later failed to discover drugs of any type. No arrests were made."

The "New York Post", a New York City daily newspaper, in its November 12, 1970 issue on page 16, contained an article entitled, "Rubin Defies Britain".

This article which is datelined, "London. (AP)", stated in part as follows:

"American Yippie leader Jerry Rubin defied a British government order to leave the country today and said he and his followers would remain in Northern Ireland to help 'the revolutionary socialist movement.'

"In a statement issued in London by [REDACTED] Rubin said: 'The American Yippies (Youth International Party) are in Belfast and we intend to stay here. We tell (Home Secretary) Reggie Maudling, the British butcher, to go to hell.'

"He has ordered us out of the so-called United Kingdom by today because of our political activities and we will not obey this fasicistic seven-day restriction.

"We are creating ties with our sisters and brothers in the revolutionary socialistic movement in Ireland".

"Rubin invited Maudling to a press conference which the Yippies said they would stage tomorrow in Belfast, capital of the British province.

"The statement was signed by Rubin, [REDACTED] another associate. Rubin, a defendant in the Chicago conspiracy trial that followed riots during the 1968 Democratic National Convention, was permitted to enter Britain for a seven-day stay expiring today.

NY 100-162260

"Commenting on the statement, a Home Office spokesman said: 'If they are still in the country after the permissible time, the necessary action will be taken.'

"The spokesman declined to go into details but it was understood that the Yippies could be arrested and deported."

The "Daily News", previously described, in its November 13, 1970 issue on page 8, contained an article entitled, "Rubin Says He'll Stay".

This article which is datelined "Belfast, Northern Ireland, November 12," stated as follows:

"American Yippie leader Jerry Rubin said today he would defy a British government refusal to extend his seven-day visa, which expires tonight. 'We tell Reginald Maudling (home secretary), the British butcher, to go to hell'. Rubin declared he flew here from London last night and in a statement given to an underground magazine, Rubin said that the Yippies intended to create ties 'with our sisters and brothers in the revolutionary socialist movement in Ireland."

The source stated it was announced that TIMOTHY LEARY, who had been convicted of a drug abuse violation in California, was living in Algeria and probably would never return to "Babylon" because of repressive conditions existing in this country.

The "New York Times", a New York City daily newspaper, in its October 21, 1970 issue on page 21, contained an article entitled, "U. S. Hands Are Tied", which stated in part as follows:

"Officials here said today that since the United States had no extradition treaty with Algeria, there would be no legal basis for requesting the extradition of Dr. Timothy Leary.

"Rumors that Dr. Timothy Leary's reappearance was imminent began circulating among so-called 'third world' groups over the weekend and were made public yesterday when the Yippies, the Youth International party, held a news conference.

"At the news conference, held outside the Women's House of Detention at Greenwich Avenue and West 10th Street, Leary was described as 'alive and well and high in Algiers.'

"The Yippies read a letter, purportedly from the LSD advocate, that said in part: 'I offer living gratitude to my sisters and brothers in the Weatherman underground who designed and executed my liberation'.

"Last Sept. 13 Leary scaled a 12-foot chain fence in the minimum-security section of the California Men's Colony near San Luis Obispo and walked away. His blue prison garb was found in a filling station men's room eight miles away the next day.

"Several days afterward, in a letter to news media signed by [redacted] who is on the most wanted list of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the revolutionaires claimed 'the honor and pleasure of helping Leary escape.'

Leary was scheduled last month to be tried in Poughkeepsie on a variety of drug charges arising from a period when he ran a drug-oriented commune in Millbrook, in Dutchess County, from 1965 through 1967."

D. United Nations Demonstration, New York City,
October 23, 1970

On October 14, 1970, NY T-1 made available a copy of "Dope Sheet", published by the YIP News Service, New York City.

This newsletter announced that the YIP and the New York University Liberation Front would hold a Halloween celebration at the United Nations in New York City to coincide with the visit of President RICHARD NIXON to the United Nations in New York City on October 23, 1970.

According to the newsletter, a likeness of President NIXON would be burned in effigy.

NY T-1 advised on October 20, 1970, that at a YIP press conference held at the Women's House of Detention, Sixth Avenue and Greenwich Avenue, New York City on that date, it was announced that the YIP would not participate in the activities at the demonstration at the United Nations in New York City on October 23, 1970, during President NIXON's appearance at the United Nations on that date, because the area would be "too heavily pigged", for appropriate action.

E. YIP-IN New York City, October 24, 1970

NY T-1 advised on October 20, 1970, that at a YIP press conference held at the Women's House of Detention, Sixth Avenue and Greenwich Avenue, New York City, on that date, it was announced that a YIP fall offensive would begin with a YIP-IN at the Sheep Meadow in Central Park, New York City at 12:00 noon, on October 24, 1970. Its activity would consist of "pot" parties, rock music and snake dances.

NY T-25 advised on October 24, 1970, that the YIP held a YIP-IN in Central Park, New York City, from approximately 12:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on that date with approximately 200 individuals in attendance.

The source stated that the activities consisted of small groups talking, smoking marijuana and football games.

On October 26, 1970, NY T-1 furnished substantially the same information as NY T-25, above, concerning the YIP-IN held in Central Park, New York City, on October 24, 1970.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY

Also Known As:

Black Panther Party for Self-Defense

According to the official newspaper of the Black Panther Party (BPP), the BPP was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY G. SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed.

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, had an article by the then Minister of Education, GEORGE MURRAY. This article ended with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

DAVID HILLIARD, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill Richard Nixon."

DAVID HILLIARD, in the "New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the BPP newspaper had an article by Minister of Culture EMORY DOUGLAS as follows:

"The only way to make this racist US government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, is... by taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forces...are dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U.S. government."

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of the "New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned, "What Is Really Happening In Cuba", placed by the Fair Play For Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times", edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between the Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year, there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that VINCENT "TED" LEE, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that LEE believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. LEE did not advocate supporting the Cuban revolution per se.

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator THOMAS J. DODD of Connecticut had called FPCC "The chief public relations instrument of the CASTRO network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator DODD was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-CASTRO FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-CASTRO street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-CASTRO American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by CASTRO's United Nations delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected Presidential assassin, LEE H. OSWALD.

On February 6, 1964, the previously mentioned second source advised that W. T. LEE had recently remarked that the FPCC was dead and that there were no plans to organize another similar organization.

On April 13, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

MOVEMENT SPEAKERS BUREAU

On August 14, 1969, a source made available a two-page undated letter from the Movement Speakers Bureau (MSB), 333 East 5th Street, New York City, which disclosed that the MSB was at that time being created to replace legitimate national speakers bureaus for booking "movement" speakers on college campuses for the financial benefit of the "movement." In addition to providing a catalog of speakers, the MSB will also have an advisory board of well-known activists to help to introduce the Bureau to college agencies and other possible sources of speaking engagements.

On October 17, 1969, GEORGE DEMMERLE, who was active in various New York based radical groups during the period 1967 to November, 1969, advised that the MSB was organized by ABBIE HOFFMAN.

On February 18, 1970, ABBIE HOFFMAN was found guilty in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois, for violating the Federal Anti-Riot Law Statute for traveling in interstate commerce from outside the state of Illinois with intent to incite riots in Chicago, Illinois, during the Democratic National Convention in August, 1968. On February 20, 1970, he was sentenced to 5 years imprisonment and fined $5,000. On February 28, 1970, the United States Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit, Chicago, Illinois, ordered him released on $25,000 bond pending appeal of his conviction.

On May 7, 1970, a second source advised that the MSB is located in a ground floor apartment at 333 East 5th Street, New York City.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

The "New York Times" city edition Tuesday, April 20, 1965, Page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the Progressive Labor Party (PLP), which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by MILTON ROSEN and MORTIMER SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

A source advised on June 3, 1968, that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31, to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

The source also advised that at the Second National Convention, MILTON ROSEN was unanimously re-elected National Chairman of the PLP and LEVI LAUB, FRED JEROME, JARED ISRAEL, WILLIAM EPTON, JACOB ROSEN, JEFFREY GORDON and WALTER LINDEM were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine, and "Challenge-Desafio," a monthly newspaper.

Source advised on May 25, 1970, that the PLP utilizes an address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn, New York, and also utilizes an office in Room 617, 1 Union Square West, New York, New York.

REVOLUTIONARY UNION,
ALSO KNOWN AS RED UNION,
BAY AREA REVOLUTIONARY UNION

In September, 1968, a source advised that the Revolutionary Union, commonly known to its membership as the Red Union (RU), was formed in early 1968 as a covert, revolutionary, Marxist-Leninist organization ideologically oriented toward Communist China, which it views as the model of the correct revolutionary Marxist-Leninist line as developed through MAO Tse-tung. The RU advocates the necessity of violent revolution and open guerrilla warfare to overthrow the existing political system in the United States and effect radical changes in this nation, and some members are collecting firearms, explosives, and other weapons and have engaged in guerrilla warfare and firearms training. In the San Francisco Bay Area, the RU consists of three locals, one each in San Francisco, the East Bay, and the Peninsula.

In April, 1969, a second source advised that the RU partially surfaced during that month through advertisements in select "New Left" periodicals, identifying three members of the Executive Committee as public spokesmen and offering for sale in the form of "The Red Papers." With the exception of the three publicly identified spokesmen, the general membership of the RU will remain covert; however, individual members are free to reveal their RU membership to close political associates as the necessities of political effectiveness dictate.

The RU's published "Statement of Principles" calls for the smashing of the existing state apparatus by the United States working class and the establishment of communism and the dictatorship of the proletariat; recognizes the necessity of violent revolution and organized armed struggle to achieve those ends and calls for the creation of a revolutionary party based upon Marxism-Leninism as developed through MAO Tse-tung.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYMII) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticomunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 1067 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also that RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March, 1970, NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States. However, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December, 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968 - 1969 and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June, 1969, NC: Weatherman, Worker Student Alliance (WSA), and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS national office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. It was closed in February, 1970.

TASS NEWS AGENCY

The Tass News Agency is the official Soviet Government news gathering organization with headquarters in Moscow, Union of Soviet Socialist Republics (USSR), and branches throughout the world.

WEATHERMAN

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention (NC). At this NC Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office (NO) in Chicago, and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its NO closed in February, 1970. At this time it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows" ("New Left Notes" June 18, 1969). This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and CASTRO's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 260 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300 - 350 nationally and geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and some Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 90 percent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three - five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

In February, 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS NO, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.

A characterization of the SDS

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE/
PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised during August, 1969, that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June, 1969, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

Source further advised that during late Summer, 1969, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 173A Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction centered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance.

A second source advised during January, 1970, that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

A third source advised during July, 1970, that during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "workers' struggle."

Characterizations of the SDS and PLP are set out separately.

An article on page 15 encouraged readers to attend the upcoming National YIP Conference in Iowa City, Iowa, 4/20-22/73. The article stressed that New York Yippies do not want to be a central committee, and that there should not be a YIP "national committee". It was mentioned that YIP's "only national structure is a communications net" between the local chapters, which consists primarily of a "telephone tree". Organizing on a local or regional level is to be one of the topics at the National Conference, however, no further specifics were mentioned in the article.

On 4/6/73, [redacted] advised YIP was [redacted] although no definite plans had been made. An article on page 3 of the recent issue of the Yipster Times called for a YIP "National Marijuana Day" to be held on Sunday, 4/29/73. A YIP parade is planned for New York City, beginning at 11:00 A.M. in Washington Square Park, and will feature a 30 foot float resembling a giant marijuana cigarette. The parade will make its way to Central Park, where a rock concert and "smoke-in" will be held.

Referenced nitel advises that YIP is a loosely-knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization founded in 1968 for the purposes of staging a massive youth festival to coincide with the 8/68 Democratic National Convention. At that convention and on subsequent occasions, YIP has proven ability to assemble numbers running into thousands when cause is attractive and on occasion has fomented large-scale violence.

Captioned subject was not identifiable in San Antonio indices on previous check, however, no YIP activity has taken place in San Antonio and targeting of existing informants has been nonexistent as a target has not been available. Youth International Party (YIP)
Internal Security - Revolutionary Activities

The Youth International Party, also known as Yippies, is a loosely-knit, anti-establishment, revolutionary youth organization formed in New York City, in January, 1968. In May, 1972 a small faction calling itself YIP-Zippie came into being.

On April 6, 1973, first confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available the latest issue of the "Yipster Times", Post Office Box 384, Staten Island, New York, Volume 1, Number 5, which is the official YIP publication in New York City.

An article appearing on page 15 encouraging readers to attend the National YIP Conference in Iowa City, Iowa which was held April 20-22, 1973. The article stressed the New York yippies do not want to be a central committee, and there should not be a YIP "National Committee". It was mentioned that YIP's "only national structure is a communication net" between the local chapters which consist primarily of a "telephone tree". Organizing on a local or regional level was to be one of the topics of the national conference, however, no further specifics were mentioned in the article.

On April 6, 1973 a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past. advised YIP was [redacted] although no definite plans had been made. An article on page 3 of the recent issue of the "Yipster Times" called for a YIP national marijuana day to be held on Sunday April 29, 1973.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On April 23, 1973 a second confidential source advised a Yippie parade is planned for New York City, beginning at 11 AM in Washington Square Park, and will feature a thirty foot float resembling a giant marijuana cigarette. The parade is scheduled to proceed up Fifth Avenue to the Central Park Band with a rock concert and free "smoke-in" will be held at 1 PM. The rock concert will feature a live rock band and free marijuana cigarettes. At 4 PM a march is scheduled from Central Park to the office of Governor Nelson Rockefeller, 22 West 55th Street, New York City, where Yippies will protest Rockefeller's sponsored drug legislation.

Mentioned in the article as other places which will hold Yippie National Marijuana Day smoke-ins are Binghamton, New York, Hartford, Connecticut, Boulder, Colorado, Madison, Wisconsin, St. Louis, Missouri, Iowa City, Iowa, Atlanta, Georgia, Lansing, Michigan and Columbus, Ohio.

Also mentioned in the article was the Yippie "4th Annual July 4th Smoke-In" to be held in Washington D.C., and will coincide with the Smithsonian Folk Light Festival.

On April 17, 1973 the first confidential source advised that Youth International Party (YIP) is currently composed of individuals who want to change the policies of the United States Government by peaceful means. Source advised YIP is in favor of non-violence and their activities involve protest and demonstrations to dramatize to the general public the wrong doings in present day American society.

During demonstrations individual Yippies attempted to provoke police into action to further dramatize their cause. Source further advised most Yippies simply were to "do their own thing" and not be restricted by society or the United States Government.

Youth International Party

On April 23, 1973 second confidential source advised in a similar manner that although some Yippies are radical in their beliefs and would like to see the United States Government overthrown by peaceful means, most Yippies are non-violent and less politically oriented. The main objectives of Yippies as a group seem to be "free love" and "free marijuana" for everyone.

Representative advised the YIPs did not hold their sunrise service at the Washington Monument as they had previously stated and by 9:30 a.m. approximately two hundred YIPs were walking in the Mall area awaiting festivities to begin. This representative noted the following license plates in the Mall area where the YIPs were to demonstrate:

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : SAC, Albany

FROM : Director, FBI (100-448910)

SUBJECT: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY
INTERNAL SECURITY

100-11739

This letter pertains to predication for investigation of captioned organization and its leaders and activists as required by the revised Section 87 of the Manual of Instructions

Predication for Investigation of Organization:

This investigation is based on information indicating that captioned organization is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, U. S. Code 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection), 2384 (Seditious Conspiracy), 2385 (Advocating Overthrow of the Government) and 2101 (Antiriot Laws).

Youth International Party (YIP) came into existence in 1968 for the purpose of staging a massive youth festival in late 1968 in Chicago, Illinois, to coincide with the Democratic National Convention (DNC). Leaders, in its early history, included Jerry Clyde Rubin and Abbott Howard Hoffman, both of whom were convicted (later overturned by U. S. Court of Appeals) of violation of the Antiriot Laws during disturbances at the above 1968 DNC. In 7/70, YIP distributed "YIP Manifesto," which was basically an antiestablishment, revolutionary pronouncement urging the youth of the United States to repudiate competitive enterprise and established institutions in favor of creating a utopian socialistic society permitting complete individual freedom of choice. Since its inception, when issues of considerable radical-revolutionary interest have arisen, YIP has demonstrated its ability to assemble large numbers of zealous individuals for demonstrations and protests, a number of which have resulted in violence and arrests. During a public speech in 4/72, when referring to the then forthcoming national political conventions, YIP leader Rubin stated "We will dump the convention into the sea and use other methods than the electoral process to change the United States of America."

Letter to Albany
Re: Youth International Party
100-448910

[redacted] stated on 7/14/73, [redacted]

[redacted] On 7/6/73, [redacted] was described as having a propensity for instigating and directing revolutionary acts of violence.

Apparently because of prosecutive action taken against Rubin and Hoffman (who have drifted away from the YIP) and others including [redacted] YIP leaders are currently avoiding flamboyant revolutionary public statements. The organization continues, however, to engage in demonstrations during which individual YIP anarchistic activists and leaders advocate violent actions and confrontations with authorities in an attempt to build revolutionary fervor among young people. Examples of this activity took place during the 8/72 Republican National Convention (RNC) and the 7/4/73 YIP demonstration in Washington, D. C.

b7c

During the RNC, [redacted] then members of a YIP faction calling itself YIP-Zippie, were [redacted] and charged with violation of National Firearms Act for possession, unlawful manufacture and nonregistration of fire bombs. Trial judge subsequently rendered a directed verdict of acquittal in this matter based on the ground that no reasonable interpretation could be made bringing the evidence within the scope of the National Firearms Act. YIP is currently headquartered in New York.

Predication for Investigation of Leaders and Activists:

This investigation is based on information which indicates that subject is engaged in activities which could involve violations of Title 18, U. S. Code 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection), 2384 (Seditious Conspiracy), 2385 (Advocating Overthrow of the Government) and 2101 (Antiriot Laws).

Set forth the information which indicates the subject is engaged in activities which could involve violations of the above-enumerated statutes.

The above paragraph should be followed by the description of the YIP set forth above.

Investigative Guidelines:

It is noted that YIP is a nonmembership-type organization. Mere attendance by an individual at YIP functions not related to violent activities or inclusion of an individual's name on a YIP

Letter to Albany
Re: Youth International Party

mailing list is insufficient basis to warrant an investigation. If a particular subject is functioning in a leadership position or, in connection with a YIP function, is an active participant or promoter of violent-type activity which could be in violation of Federal statutes, that subject should be considered an activist and the predication stated above should be utilized. If available information does not clearly indicate a particular subject to be a leader or activist, but identifies the subject as being in attendance at YIP functions where violent-type activities, possibly in violation of Federal statutes, occur or are encouraged, a preliminary inquiry should be conducted into that subject's background and activities. The purpose of this inquiry is to determine subject's exact relationship with the YIP organization and to ascertain whether he is a leader or activist engaged in conduct which could be in violation of Federal statutes. This inquiry should be limited to a check of office indices, informants and established sources, and should be handled promptly to resolve the matter. Pertinent information should be furnished Headquarters in a form suitable for dissemination under that individual's caption, along with a recommendation as to additional action deemed necessary.

Predication for Preliminary Inquiry of Subjects to Determine if They are Leaders or Activists:

A preliminary inquiry has been initiated concerning the subject for the purpose of determining if the subject is a leader or activist involved in YIP activities which could involve violations of Title 18, U. S. Code 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection), 2384 (Seditious Conspiracy), 2385 (Advocating Overthrow of the Government) and 2101 (Antiriot Laws).

Set forth the information which indicates the subject is engaged in activities which could involve violations of the above-enumerated statutes.

The above paragraph should be followed by the description of the YIP set forth above.

Volume I, Number 8, an undated but recent issue of the "Yipster Times" (YT) (official publication of the YIP), contains an article on pages 4 and 5 captioned "The Federal Bureau of Intimidation" which charges "The FBI has been conducting a counterinsurgency campaign against Yipster Times, visiting subscribers and organizers." Said article notes that the FBI is "out to smash the revolution" and instructs readers to be uncooperative with the FBI if contacted and in general contains a vulgar, scurrilous attack on the FBI and law enforcement.

Said article concludes by noting that "YIP is considering filing a class-action suit against the FBI for harassing YT subscribers. If you have been visited, called, tailed, or inquired about by the Federal Bureau of Intimidation (the U.S. version of the Russian Brain Police - the KGB), you can give a full accounting as to what happened to us. Internal Security - CPUSA

A confidential source advised on May 15, 1973 that the National Defense Organization Against Racist and Political Repression (NDOARPR) was formed at a Founding Conference principally organized and dominated by the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) and Young Workers Liberation League (YWLL), in Chicago, Illinois, on May 11-13, 1973.

A second confidential source on August 25, 1973 furnished information which disclosed that at an NDOARPR Executive Board meeting held in Louisville, Kentucky, on July 28-29, 1973 the NDOARPR adopted the name National Alliance Against Racist and Political Repression (NAARPR).

A third confidential source on December 7, 1973 furnished information which disclosed that the "NAARPR is a broad-based coalition of political, labor, church, civic, student and community organizations and individuals committed to organizing millions of people to repel the growing repression against leaders and activists in the movements for freedom, peace and justice" and "to changing the inhumane, unjust and punitive character of prisons in our country".

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY,
ALSO KNOWN AS YIPPIES

100-11739

An underground press service in March, 1968, publicly announced that the Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, was formed in New York City (NYC) on January 16, 1968, for the purpose of staging a massive youth festival in late August, 1968, in Chicago, Illinois, to coincide with the Democratic National Convention. Leaders in its early history included JERRY CLYDE RUBIN and ABBOTT HOWARD HOFFMAN, both of whom were convicted (later overturned by U.S. Court of Appeals) of violation of the Antiriot Laws during disturbances at the above 1968 Democratic National Convention.

In July, 1970, YIP distributed "YIP Manifesto" which urged the youth of the United States to repudiate competitive enterprise and established institutions in favor of creating a utopian socialistic society permitting complete individual freedom of choice.

On occasion, YIP demonstrated its ability to assemble large numbers of zealous individuals for demonstrations and protests, a number of which have resulted in violence and arrests.

YIP leader JERRY CLYDE RUBIN, highlighting YIP's commitment to violence, noted during an April, 1972, public speech (concerning the then forthcoming national political conventions) "We will dump the convention into the sea and use other methods than the electoral process to change the United States of America". Information received from a number of sources indicates that in most cases YIP leaders currently avoid flamboyant revolutionary public statements. The organization continues, however, to engage in demonstrations and hold meetings during which individual YIP activists and leaders advocate violent actions and confrontations with authorities as well as support for other violent revolutionary organizations.

On April 6, 1973, a fourth source advised that although YIP has no official membership, it maintains a loosely organized office at [redacted]

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

DATE: 9/9/74

FROM: Director, FBI

SUBJECT: YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)

As recipients are aware, investigation of captioned organization is premised upon the fact that its activities could involve violations of Federal statutes concerning rebellion or insurrection, seditious conspiracy, advocating overthrow of the Government and antiriot laws.

A review of YIP activities during the past six months shows a general absence of revolutionary actions and statements and indicates the major thrust of YIP activities has been aimed at legalizing marijuana and impeaching former President Nixon. In view of the foregoing, FBIHQ memorandum dated 8/14/74 called the attention of the Department to the lack of revolutionary actions and statements on the part of YIP during the past six months and advised the Department that in the absence of Departmental instructions to the contrary, no further investigation would be conducted regarding YIP organization and subversive matter investigations of individual YIP activists would be conducted only where warranted by the individual's subversive activities exclusive of YIP affiliation.

In view of the foregoing, no further investigation should be conducted regarding above organization and additional investigation of YIP activists should only be conducted where such action is warranted by activities unrelated to YIP. Recipients insure informants remain alert for any information concerning subversive activities of this organization or its activists, upon receipt of which same should be furnished FBIHQ by appropriate communication together with recommendations regarding whether or not such activities bring this organization within the purview of the statutes noted supra.

You may reproduce instant communication as necessary, to implement above change in investigative policy concerning captioned organization [redacted] has returned to Austin, Texas, approximately 1 month ago. He was in Europe during June, July, and the first part of August.

MIKE MARIOTE is trying to re-establish the Youth International Party. MARIOTE is one of two individuals who last spring, during anti-war demonstrations at the UTAT, had a series of balloons attached to a rope on the main mall. These balloons had the word "Mine" on them. MARIOTE was one of two individuals who were preventing students and faculty members from crossing the main mall by holding onto this rope. The indication was that this was Haipong Harbor and no one could enter. At that time MARIOTE was told that he could not impede traffic to which he acquiesced.

In re nitel, several persons from the New York City area were registered as being in attendance at the YIP Thanksgiving Conclave held in Columbus, Ohio, 11/22-26/72. Inasmuch as these persons are affiliated with YIP in New York City and may be involved in possible protest activity during the Presidential Inauguration on 1/20/73, NYO is opening individual cases on these persons not currently under investigation. LHM's under the new individual captions may be expected to reach the Bureau by 1/5/73.

Contact with logical sources to date, reflect YIP has no office space in the New York City area, nor is there any official YIP organization in New York City. In an article appearing on Page 23 of the "New York Post", dated 11/27/72, ABBOTT HOFFMAN, one of the original founders of YIP, denied being a current leader of YIP. Regarding the YIP Conclave in Columbus, Ohio, HOFFMAN was quoted as saying "As far as I'm concerned, it's all pretty boring."

Receiving offices are requested to be alert for any YIP activity within their divisions and/or any planned YIP protest activity during the Presidential Inauguration on 1/20/73. It is requested New York, as Office of Origin, be furnished a copy of any communications under YIP caption.

For the information of Boston and Tampa, which offices did not receive referenced teletype, captioned organization held a National Congress or Conclave in Columbus, Ohio, from 11/22-25/72, attended by 60 Youth International Party (YIP) representatives, and at which plans for YIP activities concerning the forthcoming Presidential Inauguration were discussed. Other matters stressed at the Congress concerned the need for YIP to organize into collectives; the fact that "dope dealing collectives" could be formed by Yippie groups; the necessity for a national YIP organization and national YIP newsletter or paper; as well as the need to make the public more aware of the "radical movement." Additional developments at the Congress included the reported expulsion of long-time YIP leaders Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin from the organization.

In this connection, an article appearing on page A-6 of the 11/28/72 edition of "The Washington Post Times Herald," noted that according to one [redacted] "of the party's Columbus chapter," "the party was not rejecting Rubin and Hoffman as members or speakers," and added that "they will be allowed to speak on behalf of the party if it is cleared through our newly formed temporary national committee." b6 b7c ~~Above Congress also witnessed the emergence of~~ [redacted] as reported national YIP leaders; the formation of a national YIP communications system called the "Telephone Tree," with regional representatives to be selected later; and mention was made of a YIP "Spring Offensive," however, no definite plans for same were set forth.

As recipients are aware, plans for disruptive activities concerning the forthcoming Presidential Inauguration are of immediate interest to Washington, D. C., local officials and to government authorities at the highest levels of the Executive Branch. In this connection, a summary of the information concerning YIP plans for activities at the Presidential Inauguration, discussed at the above Congress, has already been furnished to The White House, the Vice President, the Attorney General, Secret Service and Defense Intelligence Agency.

A review of the overall aspects of the above YIP National Congress indicates that had Cincinnati not established adequate Yippie informant coverage at Columbus, Ohio, the initial information concerning results of this Congress would have come to the Bureau's attention via a sanitized press release issued by the YIP. Such an arrangement could well have prevented this Bureau from learning the identities of the attendees and the full range of matters discussed. The lack of advance notice from other offices regarding this Congress, particularly those offices having substantial representation at same, emphasizes our current, totally inadequate informant coverage of the YIP organization.

Our continuing need for up-to-date intelligence regarding the activities of this revolutionary youth organization, currently highlighted by the high-level Executive Branch interest in Yippie activities having a bearing on the Presidential Inauguration, necessitates immediate improvement in our YIP informant coverage.

Re: Youth International Party

While FBI Headquarters realizes that the disorganized, unstructured nature of the YIP makes informant coverage difficult, it in no way diminishes our responsibility to be knowledgeable in advance of YIP activities.

In view of the foregoing, recipients submit airtels to reach Headquarters by close of business 12/29/72, setting forth the status of informant coverage of known Yippie groups and prominent YIP personalities in your area, together with your specific plans for stepped up coverage in this regard. Also submit as enclosures to your airtels letterhead memoranda in form suitable for dissemination covering the following points:

1. Specific YIP plans for the forthcoming Presidential Inauguration (information regarding the inauguration warranting more expeditious handling should be furnished by commensurate means).
2. Identities and activities of YIP leadership, current role of Abbie Hoffman and Jerry Rubin in the YIP, as well as the identities of members of the new YIP temporary national committee.
3. Identities of "Telephone Tree" representatives in your respective territories.
4. Information regarding the YIP "Spring Offensive."
5. All other information received regarding the YIP.

Additionally, recipients by close of business each Friday subsequent to 12/29/72, and continuing until after the Presidential Inauguration 1/20/73, should submit an airtel detailing results of efforts to develop information concerning YIP participation in forthcoming inauguration and setting forth identities of YIP associates planning to travel to Washington, D. C., for that purpose. Each airtel should specifically comment in this regard on the plans of each individual identified as having attended the above Congress, and, where warranted, should enclose a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination.

It is essential that recipients be aware that inadequate informant coverage cannot be tolerated in this area of our operations and your progress will be closely followed.

JERRY RUBIN
ABBIE HOFFMAN

Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman were convicted defendants in the so-called Conspiracy 7 trial in Chicago, Illinois, in the period September, 1969, to February, 1970, involving those persons indicted earlier for violation of the Federal Antiriot Statute, as a result of actions surrounding the Democratic National Convention, Chicago, in August, 1968.

The YIP Congress adjourned about 2:00 PM for Thanksgiving dinner.

After dinner, the YIP Congress resumed with a general or plenary session. The session was led by [redacted]. It was decided there would be a press conference to announce the expulsion of Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, as well as to publicize the Yippies.

The YIP Congress adjourned at 7:00 PM for supper.

After supper, the males and females attending the YIP Congress held separate meetings from approximately 8:30 PM to 10:15 PM. The meeting for the males was chaired by [redacted] and concerned the topic of "sexism." It was decided that the Yippies should struggle against sexism.

Between 4:00 PM and 5:00 PM, a male named [redacted] from New York City came into the meeting at the Wesley Foundation. [redacted] saw [redacted] from [redacted] and accused [redacted] of being a "cop" who had beaten him in Miami, Florida, and later had testified against him. On April 17, 1972, [redacted] also known as [redacted]
Columbus, Ohio, advised Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that he was a member of the White Panther Party (WPP), Columbus, Ohio, during the summer of 1971.

During the morning session, emphasis was placed on the necessity for Yippies to organize into collectives - living, working, and eating together. Discussion ensued regarding how proceeds from "panhandling" and stealing books and photograph records from stores could be utilized by being distributed in the community, thereby building the Yippie image.

There was discussion also of the organization and functioning of "food co-ops."

Most of the discussion was led by [redacted] and others from New York City.

After lunch, the YIP Congress resumed with a discussion of underground newspapers, including details of putting together those newspapers. [redacted] talked about the "Yipster Times" and [redacted] talked about how to deal with the news media. [redacted] was the public relations man for Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, and apparently had been responsible for much of the publicity given Rubin and Hoffman. During his remarks, [redacted] mentioned that in approaching the news media, a Yippie should dress "freaky," be friendly and humorous, always appear "camera ready," and hand out the "Yipster Times."

On various dates in 1971-72, the confidential source has described [redacted]

[redacted] and as a member of the [redacted] Columbus, Ohio.

On Friday evening, a workshop on cultural imperialism was held at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 30 West Woodruff Avenue, Columbus, Ohio. Essentially, the workshop related to how the YIP "rock and roll" music has been "ripped off" by "straight" society and used without due credit to the Yippies. During the workshop, [redacted] for the first time lost control of the proceedings and everyone who wished to talk did so. [redacted] was responsible for the security of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church. During the workshop, everyone talked about how the Yippie culture was being "ripped off" by society. The workshop ended between 10:30 PM and 11:00 PM.

b7C

After the workshop, caucuses were held in an effort to take over from [redacted] who had been doing all the talking during the YIP Congress.

Saturday, November 25, 1972

The YIP Congress resumed between 10:30 AM and 11:00 AM. The YIP Congress was chaired by [redacted] from Columbus, Ohio.

Copies of the "Yipster Times" were handed out for everyone to sell. [redacted] talked about the "Yipster Times" - how to obtain national advertisements and how to distribute it. [redacted] also talked about the "Yipster Times."

After lunch, those present at the YIP Congress discussed "smoke-ins." [redacted] said the Yippies had to be present at the "inhoguration" of President Richard M. Nixon. It was decided the YIP would be present in Washington, D.C. during the Presidential inauguration in January, 1973, and would perform "guerrilla theatre." In addition, it was proposed that the Yippies inaugurate some animal or object as President of the United States prior to the Presidential inauguration, which inauguration could be filmed and publicized. No definite plans were made other than the fact the Yippies would be in Washington, D.C. for the Presidential inauguration. It was indicated the next issue of the "Yipster Times" would have announcements regarding plans for "actions" at the time of the Presidential inauguration.

The representatives of YIP who were present from New York City were opposed to working with the Students for a Democratic Society regarding any counter-inaugural demonstration. Therefore, no plans were made for the Yippies to ally with Students for a Democratic Society or any other organization.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) was founded during June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan, and in the 1960s functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the United States. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved to a radical-revolutionary position, with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. Internal factionalism produced a split during the SDS National Convention in June, 1969, which resulted in the following three factions: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS. The WSA continues to use the name SDS and maintains its national headquarters in Chicago, Illinois.

WEATHERMAN

Weatherman, formerly a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), controlled the SDS National Office from June, 1969, until its closing in February, 1970. Weatherman then entered an underground status and adopted a tactic of "strategic sabotage," with police and military installations designated as primary targets.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY/WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE

Worker Student Alliance (WSA), a faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), was expelled from SDS in June, 1969, by the then dominant Weatherman faction but continued to use the name SDS and opened an office in Boston, Massachusetts. WSA aligned ideologically with the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and in February, 1971, moved to Chicago, Illinois. Students for a Democratic Society/Worker Student Alliance currently shares office space with the PLP in Chicago.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), a pro-communist revolutionary youth organization, was organized in 1969, first as a faction within the Students for a Democratic Society, then as a separate group with headquarters in Atlanta, Georgia. RYM was unsuccessful in attracting support, and by mid-1970 it was practically defunct.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

The Progressive Labor Party (PLP) was founded in 1962 by individuals expelled from the Communist Party, USA, for following the Chinese communist line. Its objective is the establishment of a militant working-class movement based on Marxism-Leninism and MAO Tse-tung thought.

The YIP Congress concluded at 2:30 PM. After the conclusion of the YIP Congress, about 30 of the Yippies left the Wesley Foundation and went to the residence of Engel and Marie Prins, 400 West Sixth Avenue, Columbus, Ohio.

The Yippies commenced leaving Columbus, Ohio, after the YIP Congress concluded on Saturday, November 25, 1972. However, 10 to 15 of the Yippies from New York City still were in Columbus on Monday, November 27, 1972, and a press conference was scheduled for 1:30 PM, November 27, 1972, at the Wesley Foundation, Columbus, Ohio, on that date.

The confidential source also provided the following information on November 28, 1972:

The YIP Congress was poorly organized and the attendance of approximately 60 individuals was much less than had been anticipated. [redacted]

(3) There is a need for a national organization which is youth oriented (this might be the most important result);

(4) Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman were expelled from the Youth International Party;

(5) A need exists to make people aware of the radical "movement."

[redacted] feel the YIP has a greater potential than SDS to build a national organization, because the YIP does not have a binding "party line." In addition, [redacted] feel there is a definite need for a national organization which represents the young radicals, and a national organization, such as the Yippies, can build if some community organizational work is done.

As a result of the YIP Congress, a "national telephone tree" is being set up, whereby YIP regions can communicate with one another. The leaders of the various regions were supposed to be decided in regional caucuses on Friday night, November 24, 1972, and would be available later.

numbers running into the thousands when the cause is attractive, and on occasion, has fomented large scale violence. YIP has previously been described as a non-membership type organization--yet it is known that national conclaves and meetings seem to be well attended from various sections of the country. Information in referenced communication indicates that the YIP organization may utilize some formal type of membership. A review of this reported membership list at headquarters does indicate that the names of a number of individuals known to have both current and past YIP association do appear thereon.

Recipients are instructed to review indices concerning names of individuals from respective areas appearing in referenced Norfolk communication. Advise headquarters, under the YIP caption, of the results of this review concerning each individual. If the individual is currently under investigation, or if your review is negative, or if available information indicates that a security-type investigation should be conducted, so state, and no additional comment need be made. Should your review determine some subversive information, but not sufficient to institute a security investigation, summarize pertinent information available to your office concerning each such individual. Headquarters will then review indices in each instance to determine if additional information is available, and, where warranted, will initiate necessary communication to have appropriate field division open a security-type investigation.

Recipients are reminded of this Bureau's responsibility to remain abreast of all activities contemplated by captioned organization, which coverage can only be attained through adequate informant development. Names of individuals appearing in referenced communication should not only be considered in the light of potential dangerousness to the peaceful and effective operation of the Government, but also as to any informant potential that individual may possess.

Statewide Conference Scheduled

OC T-1 advised on February 21, 1970, that captioned Statewide Conference has been scheduled on above dates at the University of Oklahoma (OU) Student Union, Norman, Oklahoma.

The February 22, 1970, issue of the "Sunday Oklahoman" newspaper, published at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, reflected an article which stated a Statewide Conference to plan protests of the Vietnam war was announced by the Oklahoma Coalition to End the War. [redacted] Oklahoma City, said the [redacted] Conference will be held at OU, Norman, Oklahoma, February 28 -b6 March 1, 1970. [redacted] University of Tulsa (Oklahoma) student and one of a dozen coalition supporters, said the Statewide meeting will attempt to bring together high school and college students, "various political organizations and interested citizens."

On February 22, 1970, by means of a suitable pretext, a Special Agent of the FBI determined from [redacted] who identified himself as a member of The Jones Family's Grand-children (JFG)* and the OU Committee to End the War in Vietnam (CEWV), a local peace group which works closely with The JFG*, the following information:

STATEWIDE CONFERENCE TO END
THE WAR IN VIETNAM,
NORMAN, OKLAHOMA

THE SPRING OFFENSIVE

Last Saturday, Feb. 21, there was a meeting, followed by a press conference, of the Oklahoma Coalition Against the War. The reason for the meeting and the press conference is the upcoming Statewide Conference Against the War scheduled to take place in the OU Student Union Building this weekend, February 28th and March 1st. The Conference will also be sponsored by the OU Committee to End the War.

The Oklahoma Coalition Against the War is a more or less amorphous group formed of individuals and groups for the purpose of holding the statewide meeting and for possible further co-ordinated action in the future. The group is basically unstructured and everyone does what he is best able to do according to location, time, capabilities, contacts, etc. If there is any one person around whom the group is centered it is Billy Springfield, an Oklahoma City black and member of the New Mobe. He could be called the co-ordinator of the Coalition but he stresses that each person or group do their own thing, whether it is working within the system or guerilla warfare.

Getting together and presenting a unified front across the state was the purpose of the meeting last Saturday and the same theme will predominate this weekend. Participating in Saturday's meeting were people from Okla. City, GU, TU, Central State College, and Midwest City High School. We hope to see people from all parts of the state in this weekend's Conference including young people from every university and college as well as from most Oklahoma high schools. The Conference should present an excellent opportunity to reinforce the strength of the anti-war movement throughout the state.

The Conference will include speakers, films, and workshops. One objective will be to get a meaningful dialogue with organizer's from all parts of Oklahoma and try to determine the tactics best able to retard the war effort from Oklahoma's point of view. The discussions are sure to include all viewpoints, from working within the system to open armed revolution. Since a couple hundred people are expected, most discussion will probably take place in five or six separate workshops.

The speakers will include: Greg Calvert*, former national secretary of SDS; Robert Bower*, GI organizer from Ft. Hood, Dick Le Claire*, member of the ~~Mobe~~ clan of Texas; Tom Flowers*, member of the A.F.S.C.; Mike Segal*, from the Moratorium Committee; Connie Lambert, member of the Woman's Liberation Movement and writer for Liberation News Service; and the main speaker will be Ron Young* from the Mobe. The films shown will include Inside North Vietnam, by Felix Green. Other speaking and discussion will probably include tactics for guerilla warfare and self-defense.

Most of the activity will take place in rooms 161 and 165, and in Meachum Auditorium, all in the OU Student Union Building, the bowels of the Establishment. Saturday night we will have Building 101 on the South Base, where a few bands will play. After the bands are done the people from out of town will be able to crash there if they wish. There will be plenty of room and the building will be well heated. All out of town participants are encouraged to bring blankets or sleeping bags.

Though the conference should be fun, it will include some hard work and heavy discussion. There are sure to be disagreements. Hopefully we can all come out of it with a feeling of togetherness and co-ordination. So if you are really in to this sort of thing help us launch the spring offensive by attending the Conference. It could be a great forward step for the Anti-War Movement in Oklahoma.

representing the NMC, spoke to the group and said "Confront the Draft" week is scheduled for the week, March 16 - 22, 1970, with regional demonstrations in "over 100 cities." Civil disobedience will be the theme of the demonstrations. There will be "sit-ins, lock-ins and chain-ins" at induction centers, he said. [redacted] said the major day of the week-long demonstrations will be March 19, 1970, when antiwar protestors plan to interfere physically in draft board procedures, including blocking buses with inductees and blocking entrances to recruiting centers with "human chains." He said efforts will be geared to "strangle them (draft boards) with their own paperwork," and urged protestors to harass draft boards with voluminous letter writing. A draft card turn-in is planned with cards to be collected at churches or public rallies. Organizing at high schools, circulating buttons, posters and leaflets, and the selection of draft boards to be the victim of a quarantine were suggestions he made.

b7C

[redacted] spoke to the group and said a National protest in April will be aimed at the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), with the major protest planned for April 15, 1970. He said NMC will focus on the IRS in April to "resist the misuse of tax money" on such things as the National defense budget. Demonstrations will begin in the Regional Offices of IRS and people will be asked to partially or completely withhold their tax payment, [redacted] said.

b7C

[redacted] said an Oklahoma demonstration might be staged at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, as part of this protest, but he also urged Oklahomans to join a "massive demonstration" on April 15, 1970, at the IRS Regional Office in Austin, Texas.

[redacted] another Texas speaker, argued against the demonstrations against the draft and taxes, saying the real goal should be to "smash capitalism" through "revolution." "Capitalism can't exist without a war in Vietnam," he said.

[redacted] characterized last week's burning of a bank by demonstrators in California as "the most truly revolutionary act of the century." [redacted] said every person should decide for himself how he wants to conduct his revolution against capitalism.

[redacted] Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, who helped organize the conference, said workshops were planned for the conference on March 1, 1970, to decide on Spring antiwar activities in Oklahoma.

OC T-1, on March 2, 1970, furnished the following additional information concerning activities on the first day of the Statewide Conference:

Approximately eighty to ninety persons attended the morning meeting, which ended about 11:40 a.m., and concerning events to occur later in the day and on March 1, 1970. Schedules were made and modified.

The conference convened at 1 p.m. There were no introductions and a film "Inside North Vietnam" was shown, followed by another film, name unknown. Following the films, [redacted] introduced the first two speakers. [redacted] b6 b7c [redacted] of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and [redacted] of San Antonio, Texas.

[redacted] spoke to the group on the draft and, in part, he stated as follows:

"We must smash the State. Flood the draft boards with trivial information to give them a hard time. You women, b6 b7c write to the draft board telling them that you refuse to register and sign it with your first initial and last name." [redacted] stated that on March 19, 1970, the NMC will hold antidraft demonstrations all over the country. In this regard, he stated that "We should chain ourselves to the draft office doors and block the buses bringing the draftees."

[redacted] spoke on taxes and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). In part, he said: "Don't pay the excise taxes on your phone bill; the IRS won't really put you in jail," and "on your W-2 forms, put as the number of dependents 12,000,000 (the number of persons in North Vietnam) or the number of servicemen in Vietnam, or as many as you want to so you don't have to pay taxes." [redacted] also urged an April demonstration against the IRS office in Austin, Texas.

Following [redacted] then introduced [redacted], both from Austin, Texas.

[redacted] among other things, stated that "the only solution to our problems is to smash the present State," and "a bomb set off in the Chase National Bank would do more to end the war than anything else, since it attacks the roots of all our problems, capitalism."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[redacted] stated that "the only way to stop the war (in Vietnam) is to destroy capitalism in this country."

b6
b7C

[redacted] talked for about 45 minutes. The meeting ended about 4:40 p.m.

Approximately 150 to 200 persons attended the afternoon meeting.

The following additional information concerning the activities of the Statewide Conference on February 28, 1970, was furnished by OC T-2, on March 2, 1970:

Approximately eighty persons registered for the Conference on the first day, whereas some fifty attended lectures, but did not register.

[redacted] the first speaker, spoke on NMC's plans for "Antidraft Week," March 16 - 22, 1970. He urged individuals to send non-pertinent data about their health to draft boards and to visit draft boards so that personnel would be overburdened with work. He indicated that individuals will be sending their draft cards to NMC and the Philadelphia Resistance. He pointed out that the Armed Forces Subcommittee will be convening the last week in March, and the draft cards will be presented to the Subcommittee. [redacted] said March 19, 1970, will be the main day of activity during "Antidraft Week" when "demonstrations and forced blocking of induction centers will occur in over 100 cities." He said "individuals will be chaining themselves to doors or sitting in induction hallways.

[redacted] spoke on the April plans of the NMC. He said the focus would be on the "government's power to tax." He remarked that "the government of the United States is a criminal government." [redacted] stated that the date set for NMC's massive local demonstrations is April 15, 1970. He urged demonstrations at tax centers and military posts, and added that a demonstration should be held at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. [redacted] indicated a demonstration is scheduled on April 15, 1970, at the tax center in Austin, Texas. He said individuals should also "refuse to pay their telephone excise tax which is expressively levied to support the war in Vietnam." [redacted] also mentioned that a Tax Resistance Community is being formed in San Antonio, Texas.

[redacted] next led an informal discussion on "How Can We Get Together?", [redacted] comments including the following: "The most revolutionary thing done in 1970 was the bank burning in Santa Barbara," and "our problem is not the war or the draft but capitalism." He also said that "the war will never end as long as this system exists."

On March 6, 1970. [redacted]

[redacted] Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised that a reliable confidential source made available to him the following information concerning activities at the Statewide Conference on February 28, 1970:

General discussions included plans for antiwar activity during March and April, 1970, and those present discussed tactics used in past demonstrations. The group also considered tactics that could be used successfully during March and April. Specifically, they discussed tactics and demonstrations during "Antidraft Week," March 16 - 22, 1970, which would be directed toward draft boards, recruiting and induction centers. Suggested action for "Antidraft Week" in Oklahoma was mentioned in several categories:

Mail: Flood the draft boards with letters and packages for individual's files. Female protestors mail letters using only initials and last names.

Telephone calls: Make telephone calls to draft boards continuously to tie up their lines. Call various businesses and place C. O. D. orders for goods to be delivered to the address of the draft board, i.e., food, florists, lumber, repairmen, etc. This would not exclude calls to Fire Departments and Law Enforcement Agencies requesting emergency assistance.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STATEWIDE CONFERENCE TO END
THE WAR IN VIETNAM,
NORMAN, OKLAHOMA

Demonstrations,
Sit-ins., etc.:

Sit-ins at and block entrances to draft boards; march arm-in-arm while handing out leaflets to all inductees and potential inductees that would encourage them to resist the draft. Request appointments with various officials and attempt to tie up office space as long as possible or simply refusing to leave the office. Get as many people in draft boards, recruiting and induction centers as possible to disrupt their routine.

Day of Emphasis:

March 19, 1970. Demonstrations will be at the Armed Forces Examining and Entrance Station, (American General Building), Sixth and North Robinson, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Possible demonstration at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. All other suggested activity, above, would possibly slow down or stop normal activity at draft boards, recruiting and induction centers.

Other Proposed Activity:

Consider attending and disrupting the Law Enforcement Conference on "Organized Crime" at the University of Oklahoma, Norman, Oklahoma, March 2 - 5, 1970.

Coordination of Activities:

The OU CEWV was designated as the organization to coordinate action throughout Oklahoma by use of a Newsletter sent out as often as needed.

Conclusion:

It was agreed by those present at the Conference that each individual do what he thinks best, but the possibility of direct confrontation and arrest should not and would not be ruled out by some.

Additionally, [redacted] above, advised on March 4, 1970, a reliable confidential source reported the following:

[redacted] During the Saturday session, February 28, 1970, [redacted] spoke at length of what he had done in the past. He indicated violence was essential to furthering their cause. He stated "the first place to start would be to overthrow the State government." Suggestions of violence received little, if any, support from the audience. b6 b7C

[redacted] not further identified, stated at the February 28, 1970, session that "we must get to the base of capitalists and destroy them."

Activities at Statewide Conference
March 1, 1970

The following information concerning Workshops at the Statewide Conference, March 1, 1970, was obtained March 2 and March 6, 1970 from OC T-1, OC T-2, and from [redacted] above, who received his information from reliable confidential sources:

Workshop

Non-Violent Direct Action and Civil Disobedience

Main Speaker and Discussion

[redacted] was main speaker. He b6 b7C devoted majority of his time to relating ways to cause "last minute chaos" at IRS facilities - primarily at the IRS Regional Office, Austin, Texas. His suggestions were: to delay income tax returns until the last minute and then demand the returns be accepted, attempt to increase the paper work for IRS, and to make payments to IRS by check by using "bricks, dead fish, etc., for writing checks. He encouraged persons to refuse to pay Federal excise taxes on telephone bills.

Revolutionary Warfare

[redacted] was b6 b7C main speaker. He spoke in three general categories:

(1) the psychological aspect of a revolutionary or guerilla war; (2) the three types and modes of logistic support needed to successfully conduct the war; (3) the three types of troops needed and used in a guerilla-type war. [redacted] related most examples to his experience with the Viet Cong. Considerable time was spent on discussions of the Vietnamese people's customs, different origins, and social stratifications, and how those areas related to the war.

b7C

Power Structure of Oklahoma

[redacted] was main speaker. [redacted] read extensively from SDS literature. He stated The JFG* organization had conducted a study of big business in Oklahoma and had "collected information of who has the money and the small industries or businesses to agitate."

b6
b7C

ABBIE HOFFMAN-esque
Consciousness)

[redacted] was main speaker. His discussion centered around the possible uses of "ABBIE HOFFMAN political techniques" in Oklahoma.

[redacted] suggested that OU radicals attend the Law Enforcement Conference beginning at the University of Oklahoma in Norman on March 2, 1970, take cameras and simulate taking pictures, the main purpose being "only general harassment." No definite plans were made in this regard.

On March 1, 1970, [redacted] above, advised that a reliable confidential source reported to him on that date that a group of unknown individuals in

Spring Offensive Plans

OC T-2 advised on March 9, 1970, as follows:

As of this date, the only scheduled demonstration in Oklahoma as a result of the Statewide Conference is at 7 a.m., March 19, 1970, at the Armed Forces Examining and Entrance Station, American General Building, 6th and North Robinson, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. This demonstration is not sponsored by any particular organization or group, but members of the Oklahoma Coalition to End the War (OCEW), also known as the Oklahoma Coalition Against the War, sponsor of the Statewide Conference, and others who attended the Conference will participate in the demonstration. The OCEW is comprised of three local antiwar groups: PIPE, OU CEWV, and The JFG*.

Other demonstrations may be scheduled at later dates during March and/or April, 1970, at Fort Sill, Oklahoma, and possibly at Weatherford, Oklahoma, in April, 1970, when Vice-President SPIRO AGNEW is scheduled to visit that city.

Since it was agreed at the Statewide Conference that each individual or organization make their own plans for the Spring Offensive in Oklahoma, it is possible that other individuals or organizations in other areas of Oklahoma may plan demonstrations, sit-ins, chain-ins, etc., at draft boards, recruiting and induction stations, Internal Revenue Service offices, and military bases at any time during March and/or April, 1970, in particular during "Antidraft Week" March 16-22, 1970.

On March 9, 1970, Agent [redacted] Secret Service, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, advised that Vice-President SPIRO AGNEW is tentatively scheduled to appear at Weatherford, Oklahoma, on or about April 26, 1970. He had no additional information at this time concerning the proposed visit of Vice-President AGNEW.

AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., reflects the following concerning the American Labor Party:

1. "For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control."

(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p.78.)

2. "Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the  American Labor Party. The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label."

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)

BLACK PANTHER PARTY, also known as
Black Panther Party for Self Defense

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense. Newton is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, George Mason Murray, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

WEEKLY GUARDIAN ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the "National Guardian":

"1. ...'established by the American Labor Party in 1947 as a "progressive" weekly...it has manifested itself from the beginning as a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia.'"

The February 3, 1968, issue of the "National Guardian" announced that as of the issue of February 10, 1968, the "National Guardian" would henceforth be known as the "Guardian."

The May 10, 1969, issue of the "Guardian" is self-described as an "independent radical newsweekly" and is published by Weekly Guardian Associates, Incorporated. The "Guardian" lists its address as 197 East 4th Street, New York, New York.

The February 12, 1968, issue of "The New York Times" carried an article entitled "Radical Editors Say Their Job Is In 'Movement.'" This article stated that the first issue of the "Guardian" was dedicated by the paper's staff "To those heroic Liberation fighters who last week began a major offensive against American Imperialism in South Vietnam."

This article quoted one of the editors as saying that "Our job is to build a Radical Movement. To quote the Cuban revolutionaries, we are not only to write about it, but also to move along with it--we are movement people acting as journalists.

"The 'Guardian' takes a strong left position, but it is not identified with any organized group because it believes that an American left ideology is still in the

THE JONES FAMILY'S GRANDCHILDREN

A source advised in September, 1969, that a leader of the University of Oklahoma (OU) Chapter, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), Norman, Oklahoma, stated the OU SDS Chapter was no longer affiliated with the National SDS and local SDS leaders were forming their own independent radical group known as The Jones Family's Grandchildren (JFG).

A second source advised in October, 1969, that The JFG is an independent radical group organized at OU, Norman, Oklahoma, in September, 1969, by former leaders of the OU SDS Chapter, now defunct. This second source stated The JFG will follow the SDS line and the aims of The JFG are basically the same as the former OU SDS Chapter, such as protesting the Vietnam war, the draft, ROTC, and university policy.

The October 9, 1969, issue of the "Oklahoma Daily," OU student newspaper, reflected an article which stated, in part, that The JFG student group at OU, which publishes an underground newspaper by the same name, "The JFG," takes its name from a socialist farmers group which was active during World War I. The farmers were allied with the Industrial Workers of the World (IWW) and opposed the war on the grounds that it was a "Wall Street War." To further emphasize their opposition, the farmers would not allow their sons to be drafted. Current members of The JFG described themselves as "philosophical heirs of the original Jones Family."

The IWW has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A third source advised in November, 1969, that The JFG is made up almost entirely of former SDS members whose political aims did not change when the defunct SDS Chapter at OU terminated its affiliation with the National SDS.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

"The New York Times" city edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by Milton Rosen and Mortimer Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

A source advised on June 3, 1968, that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism. This is to be accomplished through the Party's over-all revolutionary strategy of raising the consciousness of the people and helping to provide ideological leadership in the working class struggle for state power.

The source also advised that at the Second National Convention Milton Rosen was unanimously re-elected National Chairman of the PLP and Levi Laub, Fred Jerome, Jared Israel, William Epton, Jacob Rosen, Jeffrey Gordon, and Walter Linder were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine; "World Revolution," a quarterly periodical; and "Challenge-Desafio," a monthly newspaper.

The April, 1969, issue of "Challenge-Desafio" sets forth that "Challenge is dedicated to the peoples fight for a new way of life--where the working men and women control their own homes and factories; where they themselves make up the entire government on every level and control the schools, courts, police and all institutions which are now used to control them."

Source advised on May 8, 1969, that the PLP utilizes an address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn, New York, and also utilizes an office in Room 617, 1 Union Square West, New York, New York.

SAN ANTONIO COMMITTEE FOR PEACE AND FREEDOM (SACPAF) formerly known as San Antonio Committee to Stop the War in Vietnam (SACSWIV)
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

Two sources have advised that on January 25, 1967, an organizational meeting of a new group to be known as the San Antonio Committee to End the War in Vietnam was held in the Texas Room of the Gunter Hotel, San Antonio, Texas.

Plans for forming this group were initiated and coordinated by John Stanford of San Antonio, Texas. Stanford provided the majority of the names and addresses of persons who were sent letters inviting them to attend this meeting. Stanford helped to compose the preamble and draw up the Constitution of the Committee. Stanford used the constitution of the Communist Party, USA, (CPUSA), as a guide for the constitution of this committee.

On February 3, 1967, the name of the organization was changed to San Antonio Committee to Stop the War in Vietnam (SACSWIV).

A third source advised that the constitution was presented in roughdraft form at the first meeting on January 26, 1967, amended at that meeting, and at the next meeting, and finally adopted at the February 23, 1967, meeting of the organization.

The preamble to the constitution reads as follows:

"Believing that peace is of vital importance to everyone, we have formed a group that will offer an opportunity to study and promote the achievement of a world without war. Peace is above political, economic, racial, or religious distinctions. We welcome into our organization the individual concerned with life instead of death, with health instead of injury, with building instead of destroying, with development instead of degradation, with humane instead of barbaric acts. The war in Vietnam makes imperative the immediate organization of a peace group in San Antonio. Peace must win, or we will sacrifice ourselves, our children and grandchildren to a senseless military machine never before equaled. The insane waste of war and preparations for nuclear war will create the eventual destruction of all humanity if not stopped.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

PEACE MUST WIN!"

A fourth source advised that on May 29, 1966, at the Texas CP Convention held in San Antonio, Texas, John Stanford was elected Chairman of the CP of Texas. On June 26, 1966, during the 18th National CP Convention, Stanford was elected a member of the National Committee, CPUSA.

The fourth source advised that on June 17, 1969, John Stanford was elected Organizational Secretary of the CP of Texas and, as such, is also a member of the Executive Committee of the CP of Texas.

The third source has advised that while John Stanford was instrumental in initiating and helped to organize the SACSWIV, he does not control or dominate the activities of this group. Since the organization has gained momentum, Stanford is believed to exercise a certain amount of influence on some members of the organization, while some members have objected to his presence at their meetings and functions in the past.

The third source advised that on January 30, 1969, the name of the organization was changed to SACPAF over the objections of John Stanford.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

A source has advised that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as presently regarded, came into being at a founding convention held June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy" the line of the national leadership has revealed a growing Marxist-Leninist adherence which currently calls for the building of a revolutionary youth movement. Concurrently, the program of SDS has evolved from civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war stance to an advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist position. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as the leaders of worldwide struggles against United States imperialism whereas the Soviet Union is held to be revisionist and also imperialist.

At the June, 1969, SDS National Convention, Progressive Labor Party (PLP) forces in the organization were expelled. As a result, the National Office (NO) group maintained its National Headquarters at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, and the PLP faction set up headquarters in Cambridge, Massachusetts. This headquarters subsequently moved to Boston. Each group elected its own national officers, which include three national secretaries and a National Interim Committee of eight. Both the NO forces and the PLP forces claim to be the true SDS. Both groups also print their versions of "New Left Notes" which sets forth the line and the program of the particular faction. The NO version of "New Left Notes" was recently printed under the title "The Fire Next Time" to achieve a broader mass appeal.

Two major factions have developed internally within the NO group, namely, the Weatherman or Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) I faction, and the RYM II faction. Weatherman is action-oriented upholding Castro's position that the duty of revolutionaries is to make revolution. Weatherman is regarded by RYM II as an adventuristic, elitist faction which denies the historical role of the working class as the base for revolution. RYM II maintains that revolution, although desired, is not possible under present conditions, hence emphasizes organizing and raising the political consciousness of the working class upon whom they feel successful revolution depends. Although disclaiming control and domination by the Communist Party, USA, leaders in these two factions have in the past proclaimed themselves to be communists and to follow the precepts of a Marxist-Leninist philosophy, along pro-Chinese communist lines.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A second source has advised that the PLP faction which is more commonly known as the Worker Student Alliance is dominated and controlled by members of the PLP, who are required to identify themselves with the pro-Chinese Marxist-Leninist philosophy of the PLP. They advocate that an alliance between workers and students is vital to the bringing about of a revolution in the United States.

SDS regions and university and college chapters, although operating under the outlines of the SDS National Constitution, are autonomous in nature and free to carry out independent policy reflective of local conditions. Because of this autonomy internal struggles reflecting the major factional interests of SDS have occurred at the chapter level since the beginning of the 1969-70 school year.

A characterization of PLP is attached.

A review of the San Antonio file 100-9833, pertaining to the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) conducted on 7/7/70, reflected the following information:

The SDS was originally established at the UT during December, 1963. At that time the original objective of the SDS was to work toward a more Democratic Society; an educational and social action organization that seeks to promote the active participation of students toward construction of a social order that is free from poverty, ignorance, war, exploitation, and inhumanity of man to man. Membership in the SDS is open to students, faculty, and others who share the commitments of the organization. The activity of the SDS chapter at Austin, has been limited primarily to the immediate Austin area. At the present time the SDS is not a campus recognized organization at the UT and, therefore, is not formally represented by officers. The following individuals, however, are prominent in the SDS:

On April 11, 1970, [redacted] spoke at the University of Texas, Austin, Texas, to a crowd of approximately 8,000 persons. [redacted] limited his remarks primarily to the history of the Chicago Seven Conspiracy Trial.

On the same evening ABBOTT H. HOFFMAN spoke to the same crowd. The following are excerpts from his speech:

"Like I said, it ain't so much the acts that count, whether it's blowing your nose, wearing a shirt, sticking your fanny out in public, crossing state lines with evil states of mind, fighting for black liberation, fighting against imperialism, smoking flowers, even murder 'cause if you got a uniform, murder's legal in this (obscene) empire. So it ain't so much the act or the alleged crime, it's who the (obscene) doing it that counts."

"...the law hasn't got a (obscene) thing to do with justice. The law is about keeping the people in power right where the (obscene) they are. And that is why, and that is why, when those judges say we went in there, that we went in there, into that courtroom in Chicago, that neon oven, to deliberately be in contempt of that court system, they are 'right on,' cause that is what we did; because we are in contempt of that court system. We are in contempt of that law, and we are in contempt of the people in Washington that passed that law and every other (obscene) law in the books. The yippies, there are two million seven hundred fifty thousand laws in this country. The yippies are for the violation of every one of those (obscene) laws including the law of gravity."

"They took out an IBM building back where I am a couple of weeks ago, but you've seen one IBM building, you've seen them all. Boom...Boom, Boom, Boom."

"Imperialism, you don't have to be Karl Marx or even Groucho to know that when 1/16 of the world's population, right here in the pig empire, owns or controls 55 per cent of the world's natural resources, that ain't a (obscene) fair deal and the little people are going to kick the (obscene) out of big people that got all the money."

"We are going to smash a society that robs women of their dignity. That's what we're going to do. And it ain't about Virginia Slims, sticking cancer in her mouth. That ain't what the (obscene) its about. It's about women have a right to do the decision-making that affects their lives and their bodies."

"...the most important thing that we got to smash, the biggest heroin pushers in the country, the universities and schools, the grammar schools right down to the lowest kindergarten, down to nurseries like the University of Texas. We are going to smash them because what they are about is pushing the heroin of cynicism and defeatism. That's what they are about - cynicism. You can't fight City Hall. You can't do any good. Your silent majority. Let up. Responsible leaders take care of everything. Let the people in Washington, President Agnew, General Mitchell. They know what the (obscene) they are doing. They will decide for you. (obscene). (obscene) off. (obscene) reasonable, responsible, rational leaders. We're reasonable. We want everything. We're rational. We want it now. We're responsible. "We're going to take it. Take it."

"We can do it. We can whip those (obscene) pigs. We can dance on the grave of the pig empire."

"We are also a people, an emerging nation, proud, and beautiful, and right. We are the alternative. We are what we are going to put in the (obscene) place."

"We are emerging. We're going to break the (obscene) out of the eggs that we are kept in. The youth are going to make the revolution and the youth are going to keep it."

SA 100-10708

"The reason we are here is because half a million of our brothers and sisters constituted themselves as a jury of our peers and took to the streets of this country. That is why we are here and that is what has to happen in every trial in America. That is what has to happen. Bank of America. Invest your yippie dollars quick 'cause there ain't going to be too many of them banks around to invest later on."

"It is great being here. Going down to Houston tomorrow. If they don't open up that Quaker Rice Bowl, well I'm going to have the other six guys, defendants, come down with me and the Magnificent Seven are going to go in there with our seven can openers and open up that damned university."

On April 12, 1970, [redacted] appeared at the University of Texas Law School before approximately 500 individuals where he presented a speech analysis and described the Chicago Seven Conspiracy Trial. His analysis was of a more technical nature than that presented by Weinglass April 11, 1970.

On July 2, 1970, [redacted] spoke before a crowd of approximately 400 to 450 persons in front of the Alamo in San Antonio, Texas, under the sponsorship of the American Friends Service Committee (AFSC). His speech was in analogous terms to historical events based upon the American Revolution and the Nazis' rise to power prior to 1939.

APPENDIXPROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

"The New York Times" city edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 16, 1965, under the name of the PLP which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by Milton Rosen and Mortimer Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

A source advised on June 3, 1968, that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism. This is to be accomplished through the Party's over-all revolutionary strategy of raising the consciousness of the people and helping to provide ideological leadership in the working class struggle for state power.

The source also advised that at the Second National Convention Milton Rosen was unanimously re-elected National Chairman of the PLP and Levi Laub, Fred Jerome, Jared Israel, William Epton, Jacob Rosen, Jeffrey Gordon, and Walter Linder were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine; "World Revolution," a quarterly periodical; and "Challenge-Desafio," a monthly newspaper.

The April, 1969, issue of "Challenge-Desafio" sets forth that "Challenge is dedicated to the peoples fight for a new way of life--where the working men and women control their own homes and factories; where they themselves make up the entire government at every level and control the

A third source advised on September 7, 1966, that the RCFI held a Founders' Conference of the Spartacist League (SL) at Chicago, Illinois, from September 3-5, 1966. On September 4, 1966, it was stated that the objective of the SL was to destroy the capitalist system and the capitalist society and create a workers' class system and a workers' class society.

APPENDIXSTUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source has advised that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as presently regarded, came into being at a founding convention held June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy" the line of the national leadership has revealed a growing Marxist-Leninist adherence which currently calls for the building of a revolutionary youth movement. Concurrently, the program of SDS has evolved from civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war stance to an advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist position. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as the leaders of worldwide struggles against United States imperialism whereas the Soviet Union is held to be revisionist and also imperialist.

At the June, 1969, SDS National Convention, Progressive Labor Party (PLP) forces in the organization were expelled. As a result, the National Office (NO) group maintained its National Headquarters at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, and the PLP faction set up headquarters in Cambridge, Massachusetts. This headquarters subsequently moved to Boston. Each group elected its own national officers, which include three national secretaries and a National Interim Committee of eight. Both the NO forces and the PLP forces claim to be the true SDS. Both groups also print their versions of "New Left Notes" which sets forth the line and the program of the particular faction. The NO version of "New Left Notes" was recently printed under the title "The Fire Next Time" to achieve a broader mass appeal.

Two major factions have developed internally within the NO group, namely, the Weatherman or Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) I faction, and the RYM II faction. Weatherman is action-oriented upholding Castro's position that the duty of revolutionaries is to make revolution. Weatherman is regarded by RYM II as an adventuristic, elitist faction which denies the historical role of the working class as the base for revolution. RYM II maintains that revolution, although desired, is not possible under present conditions, hence emphasized organizing and raising the political consciousness of the working class upon whom they feel successful revolution depends. Although disclaiming control and domination by the Communist Party, USA, leaders in these two factions have in the past proclaimed themselves to be communists and to follow the precepts of a Marxist-Leninist philosophy, along pro-Chinese communist lines.

A second source has advised that the PLP faction which is more commonly known as the Worker Student Alliance is dominated and controlled by members of the PLP, who are required to identify themselves with the pro-Chinese Marxist-Leninist philosophy of the PLP. They advocate that an alliance between workers and students is vital to the bringing about of a revolution in the United States.

SDS regions and university and college chapters, although operating under the outlines of the SDS National Constitution, are autonomous in nature and free to carry out independent policy reflective of local conditions. Because of this autonomy internal struggles reflecting the major factional interests of SDS have occurred at the chapter level since the beginning of the 1969..70 school year.

A characterization of PLP is attached.

I. ORGANIZATION

A. Location

NY T-1 advised on June 3, 1970, that at that time the office of the Movement Speaker's Bureau (MSB), 333 East 5th Street, New York City (NYC) would be temporarily utilized as the headquarters for the Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies.

The MSB is described as a booking agency formed by ABBIE HOFFMAN to replace legitimate national speaker's bureaus for booking "movement" speakers on college campuses for the financial benefit of the "movement".

On February 18, 1970, ABBIE HOFFMAN was found guilty in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois for violating the Federal Anti-Riot Law Statute for traveling in interstate commerce from outside the State of Illinois with intent to incite riots in Chicago, Illinois during the Democratic National Convention in August, 1968. On February 20, 1970, he was sentenced to five years imprisonment and fined $5,000. On February 28, 1970, the United States Court of Appeals, Chicago, Illinois ordered HOFFMAN released on $25,000 bond pending appeal of his conviction.

NY T-1 advised on June 23, 1970, that at that time [redacted] also known as [redacted] were looking for a new office for the YIP in NYC.

B. Origin and Aims

The "Los Angeles Free Press", a Los Angeles, California weekly newspaper in its December 26-1, 1970 issue on pages 2 and 13, set forth an article entitled, "Yip Myth Becomes Reality". This article which is dated "New York (LNS)" states as follows:

"QUESTION: When does a Yippie become a YIP?

"ANSWER: When SDS falls apart, when repression grows, and when the movement needs a new national organization.

"That is the basic logic which led many of the original founders of Yippie, bolstered by Michigan's White Panthers and other movement people, to have a weekend-long meeting in New York City recently.

"At the gathering, held Dec. 6-7 at the Underground Press Syndicate (UPS) loft just off Union Square, about 30 people took a few steps toward the transformation of Yippie from myth to organization, from Yippie to Youth International Party.

"Several of the defendants and staff of The Conspiracy flew in from Chicago for the event--they were known as 'The Cast of O'Hare' (in deference to Chicago's O'Hare International Airport). Jerry Rubin and Abbie Hoffman, probably the two people most closely associated with the Yippie myth, were on hand, a little more sober (not too much) and no less gutsy as a result of their indictment and courtroom experience. [redacted] [redacted] weren't at the meeting, but they were reported to be interested in the idea of a new national organization.

b7C

NY 100-162260

"Abbie joked a lot, but he also talked about 'leadership'. He thinks the time has come for leaders to accept that responsibility. Jerry did not think YIP should write up a program--'kids know what they want'--but he said YIP should provide kids all over with an organization to relate to.

"When I spoke on campuses last year, kids would ask me, "What can I do?" I used to tell them to join SDS, but I can't do that any more,' Rubin said.

[redacted] said she envisioned the Youth International Party replacing SDS as a national umbrella group. Even the Weathermen--who are regarded with a certain awe by some of the old Yippie crowd-- might be part of YIP.

[redacted] of the White Panther Party urged that YIP be organized in a way that it can relate to the Black Panther Party, Latin liberation groups and Third World revolutionary nations and movements. [redacted] YIP internationalist from Berkeley, is already talking about YIP-sponsored trips to Cuba and North Korea.)

[redacted] read excerpts of recent letters from her imprisoned husband, [redacted], who has encouraged the formation of YIP in order to combine revolutionary/hip culture, militant internationalism and anti-capitalism in a single organization.

"It is [redacted] to use the organizational ideas of Lenin (whose works he's reading in Marquette Prison) and fit them to the cultural/social mood of the New Left and the 1960s--perhaps a marriage of Marxism-Leninism and post-scarcity (?) anarchism.

"The people present at the meeting indicate the possible components of such a conglomerate--though no structure has emerged yet. They included: [redacted] of the Ann Arbor Argus, [redacted] of the Rat and the Seed, [redacted] and [redacted] of Rat, [redacted] of North American Congress on Latin America, [redacted] of The Realist, [redacted] of the Fugs, [redacted] of The Conspiracy Staff, [redacted] of the Mad Dogs, [redacted] of the Movement Speakers Bureau, and people from such groups as the Gay Liberation Front, the Crazies, the East Village Other and Liberation News Service.

b7c

b6
b7c

b6
b7c

NY 100-162260

"Women's liberation may emerge as one of the problems of the Youth International Party. None of the old Yippie leaders are women. While [redacted] is brilliant and forceful in her own right, many think of her merely in terms of her husband. [redacted] one of the hardest workers in the movement and never short on ideas or opinions, is seen by many merely as [redacted] or [redacted]

b7c

"Many people would like to maintain the old White Panther/Yippie rhetoric about '(obscene), (obscene), (obscene), (obscene) and other arts and crafts.' They see this as a way to express sexual liberation and fight Old Left Puritanical ideas.

"All of the people at the YIP meeting, men and women, spoke out for free sexual expression and against puritanical behavior. Several women at the meeting, however, indicated that this sort of rhetoric often was misinterpreted by hip men as a green light for the domination of 'their chicks' or for that matter any 'chics.'

"The YIP people will have to deal not only with the oppression of women in Pigamerika, but also with the way hip men oppress women and with the lack of female leadership in YIP.

"Yippie has been a joyful myth, a shout of delight, an unstructured game/toy, a thorn in the side of Amerika. This gathering was a first step toward the creation of a new nation, not merely to harass Amerika, but to engage her in combat.

"Some people were uneasy about it all. On one side were those who were afraid this would be nothing more than a reconstituted 'Yippie!' --those who wondered how the concept of a 'hip nation' relates to the reality of the black nation and to the working people in white America. On the other side were the stone anarchists, those who were afraid Yippie would destroy itself by becoming too 'serious.' [redacted] took that on: 'There's nothing wrong with being serious,' he said, 'but we don't want to be boring.'

b7c

NY 100-162260

"A Chicago office for the Youth International Party will open soon. (Temporary mailing address c/o The Conspiracy, 28 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, Ill. 60604.) Meanwhile, YIP's future will be most clearly determined by three actions okayed by the people at the New York meeting:

"1) [redacted], Jan. 24. In local communities, people will get together for rallies to free [redacted], who was jailed for ten years for giving two joints to an undercover narc, to bring attention to unjust pot laws, and to demand freedom for all political prisoners.

"2) Conspiracy Trial finale. The trial is expected to end in a month or two. While the jury is out, people who identify with the defendants in their struggle against Pigamerika will meet in schools, churches and communes to discuss the struggles looming ahead in the 1970s.

"3) Woodstock-to-Washington march and July 4 smoke-in. A long march for freedom and peace, against imperialism, for a new nation, culminating with a July 4 smoke-in in Amerika's capital. Tens of thousands are to join in the march all along the way--at a rate of 10-15 miles a day starting in early June from Woodstock, N.Y. Maybe Bob Dylan will lead it, Jerry Rubin said."

A characterization of the Liberation News Service (LNS) is contained in the Appendix attached hereto.

On February 18, 1970, JERRY RUBIN, [redacted] were found guilty in the United States District Court, Northern District of Illinois, Chicago, Illinois, for violating the Anti-Riot Law Statute for traveling in interstate commerce from outside the State of Illinois with intent to incite riots in Chicago, Illinois during the Democratic National Convention in August, 1968. On February 20, 1970, they were sentenced to five years imprisonment and fined $5,000 each. On February 28, 1970, the United States Court of Appeals, Seventh Circuit, Chicago, Illinois ordered them released on $25,000 bond each.

desired to utilize the YIP for publishing and film making purposes.

NY T-1 advised on July 14, 1970, that the YIP in NYC had obtained Yippie buttons and copies of the YIP Manifesto which were distributed on July 14, 1970 in the East Village area of NYC.

NY T-1, on July 14, 1970, made available a copy of the YIP Manifesto which states as follows:

"WE ARE A PEOPLE

"We are a new nation.

"We believe in life.

"And we want to live now.

"We want to be alive 24 hours a day.

"Nine-to-five Amerika doesn't even live on weekends.

"Amerika is a death machine. It is run on and for money whose power determines a society based on war, racism, sexism, and the destruction of the planet. Our life-energy is the greatest threat to the machine.

"So they're out to stop us.

"They have to make us like them.

"They cut our hair, ban our music festivals, put cops and narcs in the schools, put 200,000 of us in jail for smoking flowers, induct us, housewife us, Easy-Rider murder us.

"Amerika has declared war on our New Nation!

"WE WILL BUILD AND DEFEND OUR NEW NATION

"But we will continue to live and grow.

"We are young, we have beautiful ideas about the way we should live.

"We want everyone to control their own life and to care for one another.

"And we will defend our freedom because we can't live any other way.

NY 100-162260

"We will continue to seize control of our minds and our bodies. We can't do it in their schools, so we'll take them over or create our own. We can't do it in their Army, so we'll keep them from taking our brothers. We can't make it in their jobs, so we'll work only to survive. We can't relate to each other like they do - our nation is based on cooperation not competition.

"We will provide for all that we need to build and defend our nation. We will teach each other the true history of Amerika so that we may learn from the past to survive in the present. We will teach each other the tactics of self-defense. We will provide free health services: birth control and abortions, drug information, medical care, that this society is not providing us with.

"We will begin to take control of drug manufacture and distribution, and stop the flow of (obscene). We will make sure that everyone has a decent place to live: we will fight landlords, renovate buildings, live communally, have places for sisters and brothers from out-of-town, and for runaways and freed prisoners. We will set up national and international transportation and communication so that we can be together with our sisters and brothers from different parts of the country and the world. We will fight the unnatural division between cities and country by facilitating travel and communication.

"We will end the domination of women by men, and children by adults.

"The well-being of our nation is the well-being of all peace-loving people.

"WE WILL HAVE PEACE

"We cannot tolerate attitudes, institutions, and machines whose purpose is the destruction of life, the accumulation of 'profit'.

"Schools and universities are training us for roles in Amerika's empire of endless war. We cannot allow them to use us for the military-industrial profiteers.

NY 100-162260

"Companies that produce waste, poisons, germs and bombs have no place in this world.

"We are living in the capital of the world war being waged against life. We are not good Germans. We who are living in this strategic center of Babylon must make it our strategic center. We can and we must stop the death machine from butchering the planet.

"We will shut the (obscene) down!

"WE WILL MAKE OUR NEW NATION FIT FOR LIVING THINGS

"We will seize Amerika's technology and use it to build a nation based on love and respect for all life.

"Our new society is not about the power of a few men but the right of all humans, animals, and plants to play their natural roles in harmony. We will build our communities to reflect the beauty inside us.

"People all over the world are fighting to keep Amerika from turning their countries into parking lots!

"WE WILL BE TOGETHER WITH ALL THE TOGETHER PEOPLES OF THE EARTH

"Pig Empire is ravaging the globe, but the beautiful people everywhere are fighting back.

"New Nation is one with the black, brown, red & yellow nations.

"He said:

"'You North Amerikans are very lucky. You live in the middle of the beast. You are fighting the most important fight of all, in the center of the battle. If I had my wish, I would go back with you to North Amerika to fight there. I envy you'."

NY T-1 advised on September 9, 1970, that the YIP groups which were or may be organized in various parts of the country are independent local groups which are not officially associated with the YIP in NYC.

The source stated that the YIP organization in NYC does not furnish these groups any official instructions or guidance with respect to their structure. These independent YIP groups may contact the YIP organization in NYC for the purpose of obtaining YIP buttons or copies of the YIP Manifesto. These materials are sold to these independent YIP groups by the YIP organization in NYC.

The source stated that most of the individual YIP groups are formed as a result of an individual reading JERRY RUBIN's book, "Do It" and/or hearing JERRY RUBIN or ABBIE HOFFMAN speak.

In this regard, the source stated that JERRY RUBIN and ABBIE HOFFMAN generally advised that independent YIP groups should be formed particularly among college students.

A. Foreign Travel of Leadership

(1) Travel to Sweden

The March 25, 1970, issue of the New York "Daily News", a NYC daily newspaper on page 24, contained an article disclosing that at a news conference held at the Hotel Diplomat in NYC on March 24, 1970, called by [redacted] announced they were leaving on that date for Stockholm, Sweden to confer with revolutionary leaders from North Vietnam and other countries.

On April 1, 1970, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed JERRY RUBIN on the Phil Donahue Show, aired on WLW-D television, Dayton, Ohio, at which time he stated, "My wife is right now in Sweden".

On April 29, 1970, NY T-13 advised that [redacted]

NY T-14 advised on March 26, 1970, April 6, 1970 and May 14, 1970, that ANITA HOFFMAN, wife of ABBIE HOFFMAN, was at her residence on those dates and that he had no information that she had traveled or intended to travel abroad in the near future.

(2) Travel to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and North Vietnam -

NY T-15 advised on May 19, 1970, that [redacted] [redacted] and two other familiar members of the Yippies were to leave for North Vietnam on May 12, 1970.

b7C

On May 25, 1970, NY T-16 made available LNS News Packet number 258, dated May 23, 1970.

On page 11 of this news packet, there appears an item entitled, "Yippie Women Meet With Vietnamese in Hanoi", which states as follows:

"Youth International Party delegates of New Nation and North Vietnamese youths are getting together in Hanoi.

"In early April, three Yippie women -- [redacted] [redacted] went to Sweden to attend a world conference called by the North Vietnamese. Out of the Sweden conference evolved plans for the Yippies to meet for two weeks with North Vietnamese youth in Hanoi.

b7C

"The women arrived at Moscow's International Airport May 18th, enroute to Hanoi. A New York Times article reported that [redacted] were confined to a small hotel and were not permitted to walk the streets. [redacted] was quoted as saying her hippie garb attracted attention.

NY 100-162260

"In a phone call to the New York Yippie office, [redacted] said the article was typical of the pig-media--they spent a week walking around and talking to the amazingly friendly Moscow people before taking off for Hanoi.

"The Hanoi trip is important because Yippies can go to Hanoi and Nixon can't. It is also significant as the beginning of world revolutionary cultural solidarity -- revolutionary rock groups and artists visiting socialist countries, Yippie pow-wows with revolutionary youths around the world...AND the end of male domination of the Yippie myth and the beginning of female leadership in bringing Yippies across the nation together.

"From a popular myth, Yippie is growing towards a revolutionary youth front, in response to cultureless politics, Nixon's accelerating fascism, the exploitation of women by men, children by adults, blacks, browns, yellows, and reds, by whites, the earth by the capitalist death machine, demonstrators by Mobe marshals, and human dignity by pay toilets."

"The East Village Other", an NYC weekly newspaper, in its June 2, 1970 issue on page 6, set forth an item entitled, "Flash" which states as follows:

"Three Yippie Women, [redacted]
[redacted] are presently meeting with the NLF and several groups of North Vietnamese youth in Hanoi. Traveling to Hanoi from a world conference last April in Sweden, the three women spent a few weeks in Moscow where they were not confined to their rooms, as The New York Times reported.
'Typical pig-media lies', [redacted] called that report.

b7c

"The New York Yippies look on this Hanoi visit as a sign of new developments in the nature of the Youth International Party. They report it will bring the international fragments of the youth movement into closer collaboration, and also that it signals the end of male domination of the Yippie myth and the beginning of women leadership in bringing Yippies across the nation together. Yippie officially protests Nixon's accelerating fascism, the exploitation of women by men, of children by adults, of blacks, yellows and reds by whites, the earth by the capitalist death machine, of demonstrations by Mobe marshals, and of human dignity by pay toilets."

NY 100-162260

"The New York Times" in its June 10, 1970 issue on page 53, set forth an article entitled, [redacted] [redacted] This article, which is datelined
"Moscow, June 9", states as follows:

b7c

"Three American women wearing black pajama-like suits and conical straw hats demonstrated today in front of the United States Embassy against the American military action in Southeast Asia.

"Two of the women, [redacted]
[redacted] said they were members of the Youth International Party, or Yippies. [redacted]
Jerry Rubin, one of the 'Chicago Eight' conspiracy trial defendants. The third woman, [redacted] said she was [redacted] for the White Panthers organization.

"The three arrived at the embassy at 11 A.M. and unfurled hand-lettered posters reading: 'Ho Chi Minh. The N.L.F. Is Gonna Win' and 'We Are the Americong'. The N.L.F., or National Liberation Front, is the Vietcong organization.

"The American women told newsmen they had spent two weeks in Hanoi and were returning to the United States with more than 100 letters written by captured American servicemen.

"After talking on the sidewalk in front of the embassy for about 30 minutes, the women were told by a Soviet police major that 'the press conference is ended.' When they lingered two minutes more, a security agent in street clothes approached them and said firmly: 'Go this way or that way, but do not stay here!'"

"The New York Post", a NYC daily newspaper, in its June 10, 1970 issue, on page 40, set forth an article entitled, "Yippies Muted In Moscow". This article, which is datelined "Moscow (LAT)", states as follows:

"Three distaff members of the U.S. radical left have staged a brief antiwar demonstration outside the U.S. Embassy here in a display of decorum that would have pleased Queen Victoria.

NY 100-162260

"The demonstration yesterday might have caused a police officer in the U.S. to turn green with envy. For when he decided the girls had demonstrated long enough, a husky Soviet security agent told them to move on. They did, quickly and obediently without a word of protest.

"Embassy officials - and the three young U.S. Marine guards stationed at the entrance - were delighted when the 30-minute protest ended as quietly as it had begun.

"They had feared trouble, for there was no way of telling what might have happened. Two of the three protestors were members of the Youngh International Party (YIP) - Yippies - whose basic tactic of opposition is a political form of Charlie Chaplinism sprinkled with a generous dash of profanity.

b7c

"They were [redacted] Jerry Rubin, a member of the 'Chicago Seven,' [redacted]

"The third protestor was [redacted] of the White Panther Party. To identify herself further she said proudly:

"'You'll be interested to know that my husband is one of the two most wanted men in the United States'.

"The three women were en route home from a two-week visit to, as one of them put it 'the bright, new civilization' of North Vietnam, where they also picked up 143 letters written by unnamed U.S. prisoners of war.

"The biggest disruptive element at the demonstration were Western newsmen.

"The girls had telephoned the Western press community Monday, summoning the reporters to the Embassy for an 11 a.m. 'demonstration'.

NY 100-162260

"Most showed up early and fiddled with notebooks, recorders and TV equipment waiting for the girls. The demonstrators showed promptly at the appointed hour, walking side-by-side, dressed in black pajamas and straw coolie hats - the traditional dress of the Vietnamese peasant.

"Two of them carried red lettered paper placards in front of them. One said 'Ho Chi Minh and the NLF is (sic) going to win'. The other said: 'We are the Ameri-Cong'.

"The demonstration failed to attract many Soviet citizens. A few curious passersby paused, but since the demonstration was conducted in English, they didn't understand a word. They shrugged and walked on."

On July 20, 1970, NY T-16 made available LNS News Packet number 272, dated July 15, 1970.

On page 8 of this news packet, there appeared an article captioned, "First All-Women's Delegation Visits North Vietnam: An Interview with [redacted]" which states in part as follows:

NY T-1 advised on June 11, 1970, that it was learned that [redacted] was planning to take a trip to Cuba for a period of two weeks during the latter part of July, 1970 and wanted other leaders of the "movement" to go with her.

The source also learned that [redacted] had recently traveled around the country to recruit individuals associated with the YIP and other "Movement" people to travel to Havana, Cuba [redacted]

[redacted] encountered difficulty in recruiting people because many of the individuals he approached expressed the desire not to travel with the VB. These people believe that considerable tension would develop on the Cuban ship between the members of the VB [redacted]

b7C

The VB are going to Cuba primarily to pick oranges while the other group is going to Cuba to meet with a North Vietnamese delegation in Havana, Cuba on a cultural exchange program. It is felt that the VB, which will be made up mostly of "third world" individuals, would resent the other group, which is made up mostly of white people. There is also resentment against [redacted] by "street people" who feel that these individuals who have traveled around the world by airplane apparently have been profiting by the "Movement" while the majority of the "street people" find it difficult to obtain "bread" (money) and "pot" (marijuana).

NY 100-162260

The source also learned that this trip to Cuba was to be from four to six weeks in duration and the purpose of the trip was to show the North Vietnamese the writers, singers and other artists that have been developed in the "Movement" in the United States.

NY T-17 advised on July 15, 1963, that [redacted] attended a speech made by [redacted] Communist Party, United States of America, at 111 2nd Avenue, NYC, on July 12, 1963.

The NMC is described as a national steering organization which specializes in the formation of local and national anti-war protest and demonstration activities through a coalition of local anti-Vietnam war and draft groups throughout the nation.

HOFFMAN indicated that the above [redacted]. He likewise stated that the group of 50 Movement people originally [redacted] with the Third Contingent of the VB did not go. HOFFMAN learned that the North Vietnamese contingent [redacted] with whom the [redacted] met were unhappy that the 50 Movement people failed to appear [redacted]. The New York City "Sunday News", an NYC weekly newspaper, in its July 26, 1970 issue, on page 72, carried an article entitled, "Yippies Raise Garden Stink", which stated as follows:

"About 15 Yippies who don't like the rock group Blood, Sweat and Tears because it made a State Department-sponsored tour of Europe, picketed Madison Square Garden last night to dissuade rock fans from attending the rocksters' concert.

"Circling in front of the Garden at 8 p.m., the Yippies, led by Chicago Seven defendant Abbie Hoffman, passed out handbills, shouted obscenities and, as Hoffman put it, had 'a Saturday night binge'.

"One elderly woman, looking bewildered, stumbled into a pile of manure brought to the Garden by the Yippies to express their feelings over the Blood, Sweat and Tears 'sellout'."

BLACK PANTHER PARTY
Black Panther Party for Self-Defense

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, BPP Minister of Defense, NEWTON was sentenced in 1968 to serve 2 to 15 years after being convicted of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther", which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service", states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, GEORGE MASON MURRAY, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

MAY 2 MOVEMENT

A source advised on March 3, 1965, as follows:

The May 2 Movement (M2M) formerly known as the May 2 Committee was organized on March 14, 1964, at New Haven, Connecticut, by a group of young people participating in a symposium "Socialism in America" being held at Yale University. The original aim of the M2M was to plan and execute a demonstration in New York City on May 2, 1964, demanding withdrawal of United States troops from Viet Nam.

The M2M was dominated and controlled by the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and had for its aim and purpose the embarrassment of the United States Government by meetings, rallies, picketing demonstrations and formation of university level clubs at which a Marxist-Leninist oriented approach and analysis was taken of United States domestic and foreign policies. This source advised on May 19, 1965, that the headquarters of the M2M was 640 Broadway, New York City, Room 307.

A second source advised on February 9, 1966, that the M2M was officially dissolved as an organization on February 6, 1966, at a meeting held on the same date in New York City, by the leadership of M2M and the Progressive Labor Party.

The characterization of the PLP

COMMITTEE, Formerly Known As
Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" of December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., describes the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) as an organization whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It stated the ECLC was established in 1951, and "although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party."

"The New York Times" issue of April 1, 1968, contained an article reflecting the ECLC was changing its name to the National ECLC (NECLC) "to reflect our determination to develop a vital national civil liberties organization in all 50 states as rapidly as possible."

The "Newark Sunday News" of Newark, New Jersey, issue of April 20, 1969, contained an article showing the NECLC, of 25 East 26th Street, New York, New York, operates from its office an anti-war legal help organization for draft-age men, reservists and those on active duty.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

The "New York Times" city edition Tuesday, April 20, 1965, Page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP, which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by MILTON ROSEN and MORTIMER SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

A source advised on June 3, 1968, that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31, to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism. This is to be accomplished through the Party's overall revolutionary strategy of raising the consciousness of the people and helping to provide ideological leadership in the working class struggle for state power.

The source also advised that at the Second National Convention, MILTON ROSEN was unanimously re-elected National Chairman of the PLP and LEVI LAUB, FRED JEROME, JARED ISRAEL, WILLIAM EPTON, JACOB ROSEN, JEFFREY GORDON and WALTER LINDER were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor", a bimonthly magazine; "World Revolution", a quarterly periodical; and "Challenge-Desafio", a monthly newspaper.

The April, 1969, issue of "Challenge-Desafio", sets forth that "Challenge is dedicated to the peoples fight for a new way of life-where the working men and women control their own homes and factories; where they themselves make up the entire government on every level and control the schools, courts, police and all institutions which are now used to control them."

Source advised on May 8, 1969, that the PLP utilizes an address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn, New York, and also utilizes an office in Room 617, 1 Union Square West, New York, New York.

REVOLUTIONARY UNION

Also Known As

Red Union, Bay Area Revolutionary Union

In September, 1968; a source advised that the Revolutionary Union, commonly known to its membership as the Red Union (RU), was formed in early 1968 as a covert, revolutionary, Marxist-Leninist organization ideologically oriented toward Communist China, which it views as the model of the correct revolutionary Marxist-Leninist line as developed through MAO Tse-tung. The RU advocates the necessity of violent revolution and open guerrilla warfare to overthrow the existing political system in the United States and effect radical changes in this nation, and some members are collecting firearms, explosives, and other weapons and have engaged in guerrilla warfare and firearms training. In the San Francisco Bay Area, the RU consists of three locals, one each in San Francisco, the East Bay, and the Peninsula.

In April, 1969, a second source advised that the RU partially surfaced during that month through advertisements in select "New Left" periodicals, identifying three members of the Executive Committee as public spokesmen and offering for sale in the form of "The Red Papers." With the exception of the three publicly identified spokesmen, the general membership of the RU will remain covert; however, individual members are free to reveal their RU membership to close political associates as the necessities of political effectiveness dictate.

The RU's published "Statement of Principles" calls for the smashing of the existing state apparatus by the United States working class and the establishment of communism and the dictatorship of the proletariat; recognizes the necessity of violent revolution and organized armed struggle to achieve those ends and calls for the creation of a revolutionary party based upon Marxism-Leninism as developed through MAO Tse-tung.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

A source has advised that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as presently regarded, came into being at a founding convention held June, 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy" the line of the national leadership has revealed a growing Marxist-Leninist adherence which currently calls for the building of a revolutionary youth movement. Concurrently, the program of SDS has evolved from civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war stance to an advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist position. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as the leaders of worldwide struggles against United States imperialism whereas the Soviet Union is held to be revisionist and also imperialist.

At the June, 1969, SDS National Convention, Progressive Labor Party (PLP) forces in the organization were expelled. As a result, the National Office (NO) group maintained its National Headquarters at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, and the PLP faction set up headquarters in Cambridge, Massachusetts. This headquarters subsequently moved to Boston. Each group elected its own national officers, which include three national secretaries and a National Interim Committee of eight. Both the NO forces and the PLP forces claim to be the true SDS. Both groups also print their versions of "New Left Notes" which sets forth the line and the program of the particular faction. The NO version of "New Left Notes" was recently printed under the title "The Fire Next Time" to achieve a broader mass appeal.

Two major factions have developed internally within the NO group, namely, the Weatherman or Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) I faction, and the RYM II faction. Weatherman is action-oriented upholding CASTRO's position that the duty of revolutionaries is to make revolution. Weatherman is regarded by RYM II as an adventuristic, elitist faction which denies the historical role of the working class as the base for revolution. RYM II maintains that revolution, although desired, is not possible under present conditions, hence emphasizes organizing and raising the political consciousness of the working class upon whom they feel successful revolution depends. Although disclaiming control and domination by the Communist Party, USA, leaders in these two factions have in the past proclaimed themselves to be communists and to follow the precepts of a Marxist-Leninist philosophy, along pro-Chinese communist lines.

A second source has advised that the PLP faction, which is more commonly known as the Worker Student Alliance, is dominated and controlled by members of the PLP, who are required to identify themselves with the pro-Chinese Marxist-Leninist philosophy of the PLP. They advocate that an alliance between workers and students is vital to the bringing about of a revolution in the United States.

SDS regions and university and college chapters, although operating under the outlines of the SDS National Constitution, are autonomous in nature and free to carry out independent policy reflective of local conditions. Because of this autonomy internal struggles reflecting the major factional interests of SDS have occurred at the chapter level since the beginning of the 1969-70 school year.

A characterization of the PLP is attached.

NATIONAL LIBERATION FRONT OF SOUTH VIETNAM

On October 14, 1966, a source furnished a leaflet entitled "Policy Statement, 20 July 1966, U.S. Committee to Aid the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam" (USCANLF-SV).

According to this leaflet, the USCANLF-SV is an Ad Hoc organization formed in April, 1965. Its mailing address was Room 5, 103 MacDougal Street, New York City. The only officer listed is WALTER D. TEAGUE, Chairman.

The USCANLF-SV supports the aims of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam (NLF) and the right of the people of Vietnam of self-determination without the presence of United States troops. It calls for the immediate withdrawal of all United States troops from Vietnam. It will counteract the United States Government's propaganda by making available literature of the NLF; disseminating analyses and reprints of the political structure and nature of the NLF; providing speakers for street meetings, teach-ins, etc.; working with all groups for recognition of the legitimacy of the NLF, and by urging all people to send medical aid and money for medical aid to the NLF through its missions.

In April of 1969, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available a leaflet issued by the U.S. Committee to Aid the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam, Box C, Old Chilesea Station, New York, New York, Zip Code 10012, telephone YU 2-7162. This leaflet was a call for support issued by the Committee and reported a letter received from the Charge d'Affaires, National Liberation Front of South Vietnam, Havana, Republic of Cuba, in which he expressed appreciation for support given to the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam by progressive organizations of North America, calling for the total and unconditional withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam. In this leaflet, the Committee urged all groups and individuals to support the just demands of the Vietnamese and oppose U.S. imperialism. This leaflet was signed by WALTER TEAGUE, Chairman.

"The Wisconsin State Journal," a Madison daily newspaper in issue dated March 31, 1971, carried an article captioned, "'Nation' Gathers, But For What?" This article, in part, advised that the City of Madison will play host during the following weekend to a YIP conference which, according to an unidentified individual at the PO, will be a gathering which will be attended by people "who favor alternative living." This individual further said, "There's no identity you can attach to the people coming. They just want to get spring off to a good start."

The article advised that the YIP conference is expected to attract an assortment of "yippies, hippies, runaways, radicals, freaks, students, street people, and curiosity-seekers."

Workshops for the Conference, according to a tentative schedule said the article, appear to be more cultural than political. Most of the Conference activities are scheduled to take place on or near the UW campus and rooms for Conference workshops have been reserved in the UW Memorial Union.

"The Wisconsin State Journal," in issue dated March 31, 1971, advised that a sufficient number of votes were not cast by the Madison City Council at their March 30, 1971 PM meeting to overrule the mayor's block party veto.

A workshop regarding self defense and street fighting was held 3:30 PM to 4:30 PM, April 1, 1971, and was attended by about 80 to 100 people in lounge of Witte Hall. Moderators for this workshop, two unidentified males and unidentified female, were told of tactics employed in past by Madison Police Department and State National Guard troops in dealing with Madison student disturbances. Source one said Witte Hall meeting 4:00 PM, April 1, 1971, was led by several individuals from the "Wild Eyed Revolutionary Movement" (WERM), a radical student communal living group with address of 131 North Bedford Street, Madison.

[redacted] ASU, Madison Chapter Headquarters, was identified as the UW YMCA, 306 North Brooks Street, Madison. Other literature authored by SDS announced a May Day (1971) rally scheduled for Chicago. This rally is to protest alleged racist employment practices in the United States and United States military involvement in Southeast Asia. Phone number in Chicago to call is 222-7042 and number for Madison, Wisconsin is 262-8316, (UW campus number). Literature authored by YIP Office of Kent Student Union (KSU), Kent, Ohio, called for a demonstration at Kent State University, May 4, 1971, on anniversary of killing of students there by National Guard.

Source said Jerry Clyde Rubin has made no known public appearances in Madison since conference began.

Second source advised on April 2, 1971, that on this date two female National New Left Movement activists, [redacted] recently released from a Chicago jail, and Susan Ellen Stern, from Seattle, were observed at Conference on April 2, 1971.

Sixth source advised on April 2, 1971, that on this date the total number of people who attended the April 2, 1971, Conference workshops were estimated in number at no more than 200. This would indicate that approximately 600 to 800 other individuals at the Conference were not bothering to participate in the daily educational gatherings.

The workshops held on April 2, 1971, were conducted in seminar manner without moderator or leaders. Some of these workshops were as follows:

Communal Living and Community Living

Attendees agreed they should return to their respective areas to form radical living communes and they feel the communal way of life has been proven effective in organizing people behind necessary radical causes.

NATIONAL YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)
CONFERENCE CALLED "NEW NATION CONFERENCE,"
MADISON, WISCONSIN - April 1-4, 1971

High School Organizing

Attendees recognize that high school students have traditionally played a very important part in the YIP Movement and occasionally have proven to be the backbone of this organization. High school student strikes were cited as a way students can exert pressure on the school administration and on society for a radical change. To allow the students the freedom of participation in these protest activities, it was felt he should not keep drugs or stolen merchandise in his school locker as this will prevent his being arrested.

Sexual Liberation

The male chauvenistic attitude was cited as a cancer that if not watched carefully would hurt the growth of the YIP Movement. Homosexuals were mentioned as people who could make important contributions to the YIP Party and they should be encouraged to engage in radical endeavors rather than shunned because of their sexual habits.

Source one advised on April 2, 1971, that the Conference workshops held on this date gave the appearance of being poorly planned and disorganized as people wandered in and out of the rooms where they were held without paying attention to who was talking. None of the individuals attending these workshops mentioned the possibility of engaging in militant protest activities either at the Conference or on returning to their home area.

First source and sixth source advised on April 2, 1971, that YIP activists speaking through the "New Nations Desk" have indicated that people who wish to continue the conference are to move into several large communal-type houses near the UW so that security measures can be tightened to prevent any leaks to law enforcement regarding protest tactics being developed over the block party. The current mood of Conference attendees is one of hate for law enforcement and they believe violent clash with police is inevitable.

MADISON, WISCONSIN - April 1-4, 1971

Fifth source advised on April 3, 1971, that approximately 40 individuals attended a tax alternative workshop in UW Witte Hall, PM, April 2, 1971.

Ways of diverting tax money for use to radical causes were discussed. Little heard of tax exemptions were outlined and a few people advocated refusing to pay taxes all together. A common method now being used to come up with extra capital is the setting up of religious front groups and corporations, with their own board of directors and operations. People can allegedly receive tax relief by paying monies to these groups and corporations, and they, in turn, then can finance and organize movement causes.

Some of the New Left Movement front corporations identified during this workshop were the "Chicago Area Alternative Fund," 1209 West Farwell, Chicago, phone 764-3620, and the "Twin Cities Alternative Fund," 2503 14th Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minnesota, phone 772-9272. The Madison Area Peace Action Council (MAPAC), 1227 University Avenue, Madison, although not a front corporation, can be contacted for further information on the topic of diverting tax monies to radical projects. MAPAC is an umbrella-type organization encompassing various Madison peaceful anti-war protest groups.

Source said between 8:00 and 9:00 PM, April 2, 1971, that about 400 individuals attended a May Day Action (MDA) movie in the UW Social Sciences Building. This movie emphasized that the New Left Movement could better organize to bring about a successful May 1, 1971 national demonstration against the Vietnam War, if those who plan to be involved join together into a collective-type communal drive, to pool their resources and thoughts. The movie said that although the main thrust of this May 1, 1971, demonstration would be in Washington, D.C., those individuals unable to come should initiate similar-type actions in their hometown areas. No specific plans were announced for the May 1, 1971, demonstration. The movie indicated that the administrative workings of the Federal Government will be stopped if the Vietnam War is still in progress.

3. Conference Day, April 3, 1971

First source and sixth source both advised on April 2, 1971, that during late PM hours of April 2, 1971, Conference attendees, residing in radical UW student housing area, agreed on an informal basis to switch Conference schedule of April 3, 1971, to that of April 4, 1971, so that if a violent confrontation occurs with police over Mifflin Street block party, now to be held 2:00 PM until 5:00 PM, April 4, 1971, the Conference will already be over.

Seventh source advised on April 3, 1971, that the revised schedule for the "New Nation Conference" for day of April 3, 1971, and April 4, 1971, eliminated UW AM rallies on these days. The workshops for April 3, 1971, 11:00 AM to 2:00 PM, in part, covered topics of radical alternative media, underground press, high school organizing and film and graphic arts. They were held in UW Social Sciences Building.

Regional May Day caucuses for East, Midwest, Southern and Western sections of the U.S. were also held in the Social Sciences Building, 2:30 PM to 6:00 PM, April 3, 1971.

Fifth source advised on April 3, 1971, that approximately 25 individuals attended the April 3, 1971 workshop on Film and Graphic Arts. It was learned at this workshop that the New Left Movement is currently in the progress of raising money to pay for anti-war commercials which will be shown on home television. The use of closed circuit TV, such as that already in use at the UW and many other major United States universities, was discussed. Hopefully, in the near future closed circuit television will be a media commonly used by the New Left to disseminate information on demonstrations, radical actions and plans.

Seventh source advised on April 3, 1971, that approximately 20 individuals, some from high schools in Madison, Chicago, and Minneapolis, at the April 3, 1971 high school organizing workshop, heard explanation regarding difficulties encountered from high school administrations when an attempt is made to organize protest actions on school grounds.

CONFERENCE CALLED "NEW NATION CONFERENCE;"
MADISON, WISCONSIN - April 1-4, 1971

Forth to fifty unidentified individuals, 90 per cent of whom were from New York City, attended the Eastern Regional May Day Caucus, April 3, 1971, immediately followed by a National May Day caucus bringing together several hundred people who had attended the various regional caucuses. People at both the Eastern and National Caucusses gave dissertations on the theoretical reasons for having May Day, 1971 national demonstrations. The individuals at the caucusses agreed that some form of civil disobedience should take place, with the main action directed at the Dupont Circle (The South Vietnam Embassy) and possibly at the Justice Department, Washington, D.C. The only specific types of civil disobedience discussed was the blocking of major Washington, D.C. roads by abandoning older model cars to clog traffic.

YIP clearing centers for coordinating the May Day demonstrations were identified as May Day Tribe, 2226 M Street Northwest, Washington, D.C. and the Arm Collective, Ann Arbor, Michigan, phone 761-9751.

Leaflets distributed in the UW campus area during the day of April 3, 1971, allegedly identified the telephone companies new code system set up for detecting fraudulent credit card phone calls. The understanding of this code system, it is believed, will permit calls without allowing the Telephone Company to detect where the calls originate from.

Source said that Conference fund raising dances were held in UW Student Union Building and Gordon Commons Student Dormitory Lounge late PM, April 3, 1971. They were attended by a total of approximately 1,500 people.

that [redacted] advised on April 1, 1971. b6
b7C

[redacted] all identified as National New Left protest activists, were at the National May Day caucus in the Social Sciences Building, April 3, 1971.

First source advised on April 3, 1971, that student radicals residing in the 400 and 500 blocks of West Mifflin Street, Madison, Wisconsin, have covered many of the windows in buildings situated there, with chicken wire, in anticipation of a violent clash with police when the block party is held 2:00 to 5:00 PM, April 4, 1971.

"The Wisconsin State Journal" in issue dated April 4, 1971, carried an article captioned "Yippies Gather In Madison, Street Dance Still Planned." This article said that the National May Day Caucus Workshop held at the UW, April 3, 1971, in connection with the "New Nation Conference" was attended by about 400 people.

The article said that people attending the May Day Caucus Workshop discussed May 1 - May Day, 1971, when radical forces plan to descend on Washington, D.C. for a festival celebrating the signing of a "Peace Treaty" between the people of the U.S. and the Vietnamese. This May Day action is designed to begin five days of sustained demonstrations in the nation's capitol and around the country.

Regarding the Conference itself, the article noted that it is following a makeshift schedule and is run largely without any chairman or any structured form.

4. Conference Day, April 4, 1971

Fifth source advised on April 4, 1971, that the only Conference workshops publicly scheduled for 10:00 AM to 1:00 PM, April 4, 1971, in UW campus buildings, covered such topics as organic gardening, photography, bicycle repair, and home repair.
People attending these workshops discussed the economical aspects of how New Left Movement people, residing in a communal-type atmosphere, could grow food and repair personal and real estate property. It was emphasized that by doing the work themselves the end product would be superior and the money saved would be available for use in worthwhile radical projects.

People in the photographic workshop were acquainted with the workings of the camera and shown how it could be used to take pictures for underground newspapers, and for other radical movement picture taking projects such as photographing police who work in protest demonstrations, so that the police can be later identified.

Throughout the day of April 4, 1971, various underground newsreel film makers ran their films for public viewing in the UW Student Union Building. These films, which appeared to be of poor quality, both in the way the films were composed and in the acting, attempted to show that the Vietnam War was bad, to show ties between the military-industrial complex, to show ties with colleges to the industrial complex, and a realistic Federal Government, to show that college education is impersonal and not well directed, and to show that this country is having an ecological crisis.

One of the films, with a theme of showing that U.S. military troops kill innocent South Vietnamese people, used the UW Arboretum as a setting, holding that this terrain was Vietnam. Animal intestines, which the viewers were told were human, were strewn on the ground, giving the effect that a great massacre had taken place.

Fifth source emphasized that for the number of people in Madison for the Conference the workshops were not well attended. Frequently people at the conferences that were held did not discuss the topic matter and due to poor attendance some of the workshops were cancelled all together.

Fifth source said even though a block party demonstration took place on the afternoon of April 4, 1971, on West Mifflin Street, Madison, a dance was held in the UW Student Union Building (Great Hall), from 8:00 to 10:00 PM, as a benefit for [redacted]

C. Block Party Demonstration, April 4, 1971

Fifth source advised on April 4, 1971, that at approximately 1:00 PM on this date, following conference workshops, a crowd estimated at approximately 2,000 people, predominantly of college age, began moving into the 400 and 500 block of West Mifflin Street for scheduled 2:00 PM block party. Between period of 2:00 PM and 7:00 PM, April 4, 1971, police estimated at 200 in number patrolled Mifflin Street area on foot and in vehicles keeping crowd on sidewalks. Source said stones and other objects were frequently thrown at police.

Source said [redacted] were observed addressing block party demonstrators in front of 525 West Mifflin Street, urging that they attack police and hold party. [redacted] said that best time for a confrontation would be at night when it was completely dark.

arrests were made. Demonstrators broke windows to the International adjacent to the protest area. The value of these windows was estimated at $2,500. Two police officers were treated for superficial skin wounds and released from the hospital after being struck by flying

[redacted] further advised that the block party demonstration of West Mifflin Street are in a complete shambles. Traffic signs are down, rubbish is strewn on lawns and in the streets, and in addition to the breaking of windows in the IBM Building demonstrators turned over a panel truck. Demonstrators also broke and entered the Monona Tire Store, 205 North Bassett Street, adjacent to the protest area, and removed five large construction vehicle tires. These tires, valued at about $4,000, were then set on fire and rolled into the Mifflin Street area to block traffic. Three of the tires were so large that five police officers could not remove one of them from the street.

This article advised that 17 individuals were arrested Sunday afternoon, April 4, 1971, when an afternoon block party on Mifflin Street erupted into violence.

The article noted that most of the violence was confined to a four block area around Mifflin and Bassett Streets. Police squad cars were the targets of much of the rock throwing. A spokesman for the Madison Police Department said that windows of many squad cars were broken.

Police spent considerable time smashing street barricades made up of rocks, garbage cans, and pieces of lumber that were erected by the demonstrators. Some of the barricades were burning.

The article noted that the demonstration involved approximately 2,100 individuals, identified as residents of the Mifflin Street area, YIP leaders in town for the "New Nation Conference," and onlookers.

"The Milwaukee Journal," in issue dated April 6, 1971, in an article which advised that 13 of the individuals arrested in the block party demonstration plead not guilty to their charges, said that law enforcement officials have estimated that the cost of paying overtime for police officers assigned to handle the Mifflin Street demonstration and policing the "New Nation Conference" over the period of March 31, 1971 to April 4, 1971, was set at $75,000.00. Revolution is the creation of new living institutions, new groupings, new social relationships; it is the destruction of privileges and monopolies; it is the new spirit of justice, of brotherhood, of freedom which must renew the whole of social life, the moral level and the material conditions of the masses by calling on them to provide, through their direct and conscious action, for their own future.

Revolution is the organisation of all public services by those who work in them in their own interest as well as the public's;

Revolution is the destruction of all coercive ties; it is the autonomy of groups, of communes, of regions; Revolution is the free federation brought about by a desire for brotherhood, by individual and collective interests, by the needs of production and defence;

Revolution is the constitution of innumerable free groupings based on ideas, wishes, and tastes of all kinds that exist among the people;

Revolution is the forming and disbanding of thousands of representative, district, communal, regional, national bodies which, without having any legislative power, serve to make known and to coordinate the desires and interests of people near and far and which act through information, advice and example.

Revolution is freedom proved in the crucible of facts and lasts so long as freedom lasts, that is until others, taking advantage of the weariness that overtakes the masses, of the inevitable disappointments that follow exaggerated hopes, of the probable errors and human faults, succeed in constituting a power, which supported by an army of conscripts or mercenaries, lays down the law, arrests the movement at the point it has reached, and then begins the reaction.

WE WILL continue to seize control of our minds and our bodies. We

Our nation is based on cooperation not competition.

We will provide for all that we need to build and defend our nation. We will teach each other the true history of Amerika so that we may learn from the past to survive in the present. We will teach each other the tactics of self defense. We will provide free health services: birth control and abortions, drug information, medical care, that this society is not providing us with.

We will begin to take control of drug manufacture and distribution, and stop the flow of bad shit. We will make sure that everyone has a decent place to live : we will fight landlords, renovate buildings, live communally, have places for sisters and brothers from out of town, and for runaways and freed prisoners. We will set up national and international transportation and communications so that we can be together with our sisters and brothers from different parts of the country and the world. We will fight the unnatural division between cities and country by facilitating travel and communication.

We will end the domination of women by men ,and children by adults.

The well being of our nation is the well being of all peace-loving people.

WE WILL HAVE PEACE

We cannot tolerate attitudes, institutions, and machines whose purpose is the destruction of life, the accumulation of "profit".

Schools and universities are training us for roles in Amerika's empire of endless war. We cannot allow them to use us for the military industrial profiteers.

Companies that produce waste, poisons, and bombs have no place in this world.

We are living in the capital of the world war being waged against life. We are not good Germans. We who are living in this strategic center of Babylon must make it our strategic center. We can and we must stop the death machine from butchering the planet.

We will shut the motherfucker down!

WE WILL MAKE OUR NEW NATION FIT FOR LIVING THINGS

We will seize Amerika's technology and use it to build a nation based on love and respect for all life.

Our new society is not about the power of a few but the right of all humans, animals, and plants to play out their natural roles in harmony. We will build our communities to reflect the beauty inside us.

People all over the world are fighting to keep Amerika from turning their countries into parking lots!

WE WILL BE TOGETHER WITH ALL THE OTHER PEOPLES OF THE EARTH. Amerika's Empire is ravaging the globe, but the beautiful people everywhere are fighting back.

Our Nation is one with black, brown, and yellow people. As it was said, "You Fight Amerika is no way to win."

NATIONAL YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY (YIP)
CONFERENCE CALLED "NEW NATION CONFERENCE,"
MADISON, WISCONSIN - April 1-4, 1971

First source said that although the "New Nation Conference" did not officially draft a "position paper," the paper written by [redacted] captioned "Fire" was widely circulated throughout the Conference attendees and appeared to espouse the type of revolutionary philosophy to which they were in agreement. This paper which attempts to show that the YIP philosophy and goals are similar to the goals of the Weatherman revolutionaries, in part, advises as follows:

b6

"..."

"Revolutionary organization succeeds where revolutionary violence and mass organizing are joined. Obviously, organizing without wiping out the widespread notion that we can have a revolution without violence, is a waste. But to insist on continuous military offensives without mass support - without educating people and showing them how certain violence helps them - is just as self-defeating. This 'military err' as Weatherpeople call it, has brought Yippies and the whole movement to the current standstill."

"..."

"This is the meaning of the Weatheryippie. By organizing around the contradiction between the community and the police, the people and the war machine, millions of freeks will be educated to the need to arm themselves - to see that a well-armed community is the only way to deter the pigs from firing the first shot when we take to the streets.

"Eventually the mass movement will be able to create the situation where the underground can make a coup, if and when it gets itself together. When we have cultivated enough struggles where people learn that pacifism is not The Answer, when armed loved becomes the cultural norm, freeks, like blacks, will be ready to move as a people to a higher level.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY (BPP),

Black Panther Party for Self Defense

According to the official newspaper of the BPP, the BPP was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by BOBBY G. SEALE, BPP Chairman, and HUEY P. NEWTON, Minister of Defense, BPP.

The official newspaper, called "The Black Panther," regularly states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the people who are consistently referred to as "pigs" who should be killed.

The newspaper, in its issue of September 7, 1968, has an article by the then Minister of Education, GEORGE MURRAY. This article ended with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

The BPP newspaper, issue of October 5, 1968, had an article introduced with the following statement: "We will not dissent from American government. We will overthrow it."

DAVID HILLIARD, Chief of Staff, BPP, in a speech at the San Francisco Polo Field on November 15, 1969, said "We will kill RICHARD NIXON."

DAVID HILLIARD, in the "New York Times," issue of December 13, 1969, was quoted as follows: "We advocate the very direct overthrow of the government by way of force and violence."

In the issue of April 25, 1970, the BPP newspaper had an article by Mister of Culture EMORY DOUGLAS as follows:

"The only way to make this racist US government administer justice to the people it is oppressing, is...by taking up arms against this government, killing the officials, until the reactionary forces.. are dead, and those that are left turn their weapons on their superiors, thereby passing revolutionary judgement against the number one enemy of all mankind, the racist U.S. government."

The BPP Headquarters is located at 1046 Peralta Street, Oakland, California. Branches of the BPP, and Committees to Combat Fascism, under control of the BPP, have been established in various locations in the USA.

PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY (PLP)

"The New York Times" city edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP which had been known as the Progressive Labor Movement.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962, by Milton Rosen and Mortimer Scheer after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line."

A source advised on June 3, 1968, that the PLP held its Second National Convention in New York City, May 31 to June 2, 1968, at which time the PLP reasserted its objective of the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism. This is to be accomplished through the Party's overall revolutionary strategy of raising the consciousness of the people and helping to provide ideological leadership in the working class struggle for state power.

The source also advised that at the Second National Convention Milton Rosen was unanimously re-elected National Chairman of the PLP and Levi Laub, Fred Jerome, Jared Israel, William Epton, Jacob Rosen, Jeffrey Gordon, and Walter Linder were elected as the National Committee to lead the PLP until the next convention.

The PLP published "Progressive Labor," a bimonthly magazine; "World Revolution," a quarterly periodical; and "Challenge-Desafio," a monthly newspaper.

The April, 1969, issue of "Challenge-Desafio" sets forth that "Challenge is dedicated to the peoples fight for a new way of life--where the working men and women control their own homes and factories; where they themselves make up the entire government on every level and control the schools, courts, police and all institutions which are now used to control them."

Source advised on May 8, 1969, that the PLP utilizes an address of General Post Office Box 808, Brooklyn, New York, and also utilizes an office in Room 617, 1 Union Square West, New York, New York.

REVOLUTIONARY YOUTH MOVEMENT

A source advised that the Revolutionary Youth Movement II (RYM II) faction of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held a national conference at Atlanta, Georgia, from November 26 to 30, 1969. At this conference it was decided to form a new organization to be known as Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM), characterized as a mass anti-imperialist youth organization, said organization being proposed as separate and distinct in form and content from SDS. The "Principles of Unity" adopted by the conference included a struggle against white supremacy and male supremacy; fights against imperialism, anticomunism, fascism and oppression of youth; and support of the right of self-determination of all "oppressed nations," also support of the right of all "oppressed and exploited" peoples "to armed self-defense." It was agreed that RYM would not be a Marxist-Leninist organization; however, source said this was decided in order to indicate an organization broad enough in form to be acceptable to everyone. A temporary National Steering Committee (NSC) made up of eight females and two males was elected to govern RYM until national officers could be elected during the Spring of 1970.

RYM publications have listed the RYM National Office (NO) at Post Office Box 5421 and Post Office Box 77012 C, both Atlanta, Georgia, and a second source has advised that the NO has no office space but would probably be considered as located at Apartment 27, 10.7 Alta Avenue, Northeast, Atlanta.

Second source advised that women dominated the founding conference and have continued to dominate NSC meetings to the point that "women's liberation" has apparently become the RYM's principal issue - also the RYM's poor financial condition has resulted in its failure to publish a paper. During early 1970, RYM has decided to cater to the working class rather than youth, since the potential for social revolution lies in workers.

A third source has stated that it was decided at the March 1970 NSC meeting that RYM women had decided the organization will be molded into a "working class, Marxist-Leninist, revolutionary, anti-imperialist, problack nationalist, people's women's liberation organization."

A characterization of Students for a Democratic Society is attached hereto.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society, commonly known as SDS, came into existence at a founding convention held during June 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," Marxist-Leninist ideology of various shadings became predominant during 1968-1969 with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. SDS moved from involvement in the civil rights struggle to an anti-Vietnam war position to advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist line linking up the oppressed peoples of Asia, Africa and Latin America with the black liberation movement in the United States. All major factions within SDS embrace Marxism-Leninism and identify internationally with China, Cuba and North Vietnam as countries leading the worldwide struggles against the United States. However, the Soviet Union was regarded as imperialist and with the Communist Party, United States of America, "revisionist" in nature.

SDS operated under a national constitution which called for an annual National Convention (NC) and quarterly National Council meetings wherein programs were initiated and debated. Three national officers were elected annually with a National Interim Committee to run the organization. Regional offices and college chapters elected delegates to the national meetings but each functioned independently on local matters. Its official publication "Fire" (formerly "New Left Notes") last appeared in December 1969.

Internal factionalism of serious proportions developed during 1968-1969, and the following three factions evolved as a result of a split at the June 1969, NC: Weatherman, Worker Student Alliance (WSA), and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). The effect of the split on SDS chapters throughout the country was divisive. Some aligned with one or the other of the three major factions. Others, unable to identify with any faction, disassociated with SDS completely and changed names.

The SDS National Office in recent years was located at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. It was closed in February 1970.

The Weatherman and RYM groups no longer consider themselves associated with SDS, and the WSA group refers to itself as the true SDS.

VENCEREMOS BRIGADE (VB)

The Venceremos Brigade (VB) has been publicly described as a group of American volunteers travelling to Cuba, at the invitation of the Cuban Government, to assist in the harvesting of sugar cane.

The VB, organized in June, 1969, by a coalition of the "New Left" in open defiance of the United States Department of State ban on travel to Cuba, has already sponsored two contingents to Cuba. One group of over 200 Americans travelled to Cuba via Mexico in November--December, 1969, for a stay of almost two months. The second group of over 500 Americans departed by Cuban vessel, St. John's, New Brunswick, Canada, on February 13, 1970, and returned on April 28, 1970.

"Venceremos," translated, means "we will win," a slogan of the late CHE GUEVERA, Cuban revolutionary leader.

~~WEATHERMAN~~

Initially called the "Action Faction," Weatherman came into being immediately before the June, 1969, Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) National Convention (NC). At this NC Weatherman won all three national officer positions and a majority of the National Interim Committee as well. Subsequently, they took over the SDS National Office (NO) in Chicago, and controlled its funds, paper and national records. Although internal struggle existed until late 1969, Weatherman for all major purposes controlled SDS nationally from June, 1969, until its NO closed in February, 1970. At this time it no longer considered itself part of SDS.

The term Weatherman emerged from an ideological paper prepared by its leaders entitled "You Don't Need a Weatherman to Know Which Way the Wind Blows" ("New Left Notes" June 18, 1969). This statement outlined the basic stance of Weatherman: Marxist-Leninist in content but with strong advocacy that action not theory would bring about revolution in the United States. This posture was complemented with an international identification to the Cuban revolution and Castro's statement that the duty of a revolutionary is to make revolution.

During October, 1969, Weatherman riots in Chicago resulted in more than 260 arrests for mob action and related charges. A program of armed struggle was finalized during a December, 1969, "War Council" wherein terrorist tactics and political assassination were contemplated. The basic strength of Weatherman was then revealed to be some 300 - 350 nationally geographically apportioned to the Midwest, New York, and Northwest.

As its rhetoric of violence escalated, Weatherman leaders increasingly discussed the necessity of an underground operation wherein more than 90 percent of the organization would be submerged; "affinity groups" of three - five members would function independently. In February, 1970, Weatherman leaders announced a program of "strategic sabotage" with police and military installations as primary targets.

In February, 1970, Weatherman abandoned the SDS NO, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, and throughout the country entered an underground status.

A characterization of the SDS is attached hereto.

WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE/PROGRESSIVE LABOR PARTY

A source advised during August, 1969, that at the National Convention (NC) of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) held in Chicago, Illinois, during June, 1961, a split arose between the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and the National Office (NO), the NO becoming known as the Weatherman faction. The PLP faction drew the largest support among those in attendance at the NC.

Source further advised that during late summer, 1961, the PLP faction of SDS established its National Headquarters (NH) on the second floor of a loft-type building at 173A Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts. The campaign on which the PLP faction centered was to build a worker student alliance or a campus worker student alliance. Thus, they adopted the names of Worker Student Alliance (WSA) or Campus Worker Student Alliance.

A second source advised during January, 1970, that within the SDS, the WSA is a caucus of which the PLP constitutes the leadership.

A third source advised during July, 1970, that during demonstrations staged in the Boston area during the Spring and Summer of 1970 by the NH, the main theme of previous demonstrations staged by the NH shifted from protestations of the Vietnam War and other United States foreign policy matters to attacking domestic issues such as racism and unemployment and demonstrating support of the "Workers' struggle."

Characterizations of the SDS and PLP are attached hereto.

YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY
YIPPIES

The Youth International Party (YIP), also known as Yippies, was formed in New York City in January, 1968, for the purpose of staging a massive youth festival in Chicago, Illinois, in August, 1968, to coincide with the Democratic National Convention. The organization has temporarily disbanded at various times, but its leaders, including Jerry Clyde Rubin, Abbott Howard Hoffman, [redacted] continued to foster the Yippie image within the New Left movement.

b7C

In July, 1970, the Yippies distributed a "YIP Manifesto" which was basically an antiestablishment revolutionary pronouncement. This manifesto urged the youth of the United States to repudiate competitive enterprise and established institutions and to create a utopian socialistic society permitting complete individual freedom of choice on issues ranging from drug use to work production.

When attractive causes arise, YIP can assemble large numbers of zealous individuals for organizing demonstrations, marches, rock festivals, and lobbying groups. It has claimed credit for large antiwar marches in Washington, D. C., New York City, and San Francisco, California.

YIP in New York City denies that it is officially associated with other YIP organizations in the United States, but it does supply independent Yippie groups with "YIP" buttons and copies of the "YIP Manifesto."

APPENDIX

SYMBIONESE LIBERATION ARMY

The Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) was reportedly formed in the Summer of 1973, in California. An SLA document captioned, "Declaration of Revolutionary War and the Symbionese Program," dated 8/21/73, states ". . . Therefore, we of the Symbionese Federation of the SLA . . . do now, by the rights of our children and people and by force of arms and with every drop of our blood, declare revolutionary war against the fascist, capitalist class. We support by force of arms the just struggles of all oppressed people for self-determination and independence within the United States and the world, and hereby offer to all liberation movements, revolutionary workers' groups and peoples' organizations our total aid and support for the struggle for freedom and justice for all people and races . . ." The SLA has claimed credit for the 11/6/73 assassination of Dr. Marcus Foster, Oakland, California, School Superintendent; the 2/4/74 kidnaping of Patricia Campbell Hearst, daughter of newspaper publisher-owner Randolph A. Hearst; and the 4/15/74 robbery of the Hibernia Bank, San Francisco, California, in the furtherance of its revolutionary objectives. Six members of the SLA were involved in a shoot-out with the FBI and Los Angeles, California, police on 5/17/74, resulting in their deaths. Although no current information has been developed indicating the group has been active in areas other than California, other groups and individuals have surfaced claiming adherence to the SLA's revolutionary tenets.

APPENDIX

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA (CPUSA)

Title III, USC, Section 791 (Internal Security Act of 1950) stated that, as a result of evidence adduced before various committees of the Senate and House of Representatives, Congress found the existence of a world communist revolutionary movement, whose purpose is to establish a communist totalitarian dictatorship in the world's countries through the medium of a world-wide communist organization. Communist action organizations in various countries endeavor to carry out the objectives of the world communist movement by bringing about the overthrow of existing governments by any means. The communist organization in the United States -- the CPUSA -- pursuing its stated objectives, presents "a clear and present danger to the security of the United States." The Subversive Activities Control Board, established by Section 791 of the above Act, found the CPUSA to be a communist action organization. This finding was upheld by the United States Supreme Court in June, 1961. The CPUSA has continued to be an arm of the international communist movement dominated by the Soviet Union. The CPUSA, in its dependence on the Soviet Union, has never knowingly adopted a position contrary to Soviet policy. Its leaders frequently confer with Soviet leaders to receive guidance and direction on the policies the CPUSA is to follow. There has been no evidence that the primary aims of the CPUSA, as they conform to Soviet objectives, have changed over the years.

SUBJECT: POSSIBLE DEMONSTRATIONS AND

 NATIONAL CONVENTION,
 JULY, 1976
 NEW YORK, NEW YORK
 (OO: NY)

The Democratic National Convention (DNC) will commence July 12, 1976, and run through July 18, 1976, at Madison Square Garden, New York, New York. New York Office investigative responsibilities are defined in several areas as follows:

I. NEW YORK OFFICE INVESTIGATIVE STRUCTURE

A. Division IV (Internal Security) is coordinating investigations of groups and individuals who exhibit a propensity for violence in violation of Federal Law, as related to the DNC. These investigations are presently being conducted under the "Guide lines of the United States Department of Justice regarding domestic security investigations". More specifically, DIVISION IV is actively pursuing investigations of revolutionary groups and will handle extremist bombings and other conduct of revolutionaries during the convention. (A summary of activities to date by these groups is provided under Section II below). Section 47 (Supervisor [redacted] and Special Agent Coordinator [redacted] are responsible for these investigations, as well as effecting cooperativeness between the Intelligence Units of the New York City Police Department (NYCPD) and Secret Service (SS). On April 30, 1976, a conference was held at the New York Office between United States Secret Service, Intelligence Division, and the New York Office, DIVISION IV.

b7C

Presently, Section 47 has opened New York file 100-182133, captioned as above, which serves as a control file to aid in the identification of individuals, groups or organizations planning disruptive conduct. In this regard, an all Agents memorandum was sent on April 13, 1976. In addition, main case files are opened upon organizations whose self-admitted goals are disruptive conduct at the DNC. Two (2) main cases, New York file 100-182323, captioned "UNITED ACTION FRONT" and New York file 100-162260, captioned "YOUTH INTERNATIONAL PARTY" (YIP), as well as numerous individual cases are being actively investigated.

In the future, the ADIC and all SACs will be fully advised as to information developed regarding these groups and the convention. Daily summary memorandums will be provided as the convention nears.

B. DIVISION II (Criminal) is responsible for criminal violations which may occur incident to the DNC. These violations will include such matters as Assaults Against Congressmen, the Assassination Statute, etcetera. In addition, DIVISION II is responsible for overall liaison between the New York Office and the various agencies. Special Agent [redacted] is designated liaison representative, New York Office. New York file 66-8186 serves as a vehicle for this liaison role.

II PRESENT INFORMATION REGARDING REVOLUTIONARY CONDUCT OR DISRUPTION AT THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION

A. Covert revolutionary groups - Informants and Agent personnel have been alerted regarding possible actions by such urban guerrilla units as Weatherman, FALN, Jewish Defense League, etcetera. Prior to and during the DNC, Agents assigned to these investigations will be particularly aware of the travel and activity of support personnel affiliated with these terrorist entities and be attuned to any possible violence directed at the convention by such groups.

B. Established groups who are coordinating planned demonstrations and anti-police and delegate conduct - The United Action Front (UAF) is an umbrella organization formed early in 1976, with the express purpose of coordinating demonstrations at the DNC. Their office is located at 156 5th Avenue, Room 707, and is staffed by approximately five (5) full-time workers. The co-ordinator of this entity is identified as [redacted] [redacted] who is identical to New York Case EM-SLA. He has been a member of CPUSA, a sympathizer of SLA, an associate of Bureau Fugitive ABBEY HOFFMAN and a member of YIP in 1973. His prior arrest include [redacted] [redacted] Present investigation of [redacted] notes information from a confidential source that he has attempted to obtain weapons in the past and has discussed bombings. SS has been advised via LHM regarding [redacted]. Individuals associated with UAF and its meetings are closely monitored by existing informants. An analysis of UAF's activities to date notes that the group is, in fact, a front organization for YIP (see below), and will serve as the legitimate centerpiece for coordinating demonstrations. It is difficult to judge at the present time what the success will be of UAF in massing demonstrations, but one does note they are internally well organized and exhibit no difficulty in financing.

The Youth International Party (YIP) has historically been the "spoiler" at past national conventions as in Chicago and Miami. YIP has set up offices in Kansas City and in New York, at 9 Bleeker Street, to gear for the 1976 conventions. Leaders of this activist group are the same individuals responsible for disruptive conduct at prior conventions. More specifically, the Kansas City Office of the FBI has advised that YIP has three (3) full-time coordinators working in that city and expects 60,000 demonstrators in that area. A park permit has not been granted in Kansas City for these demonstrations at this time. In New York City, YIP has become more active. Leaders encouraged YIP activists to harass political candidates. In this regard, a YIP leader identified as [redacted]

after [redacted]

[redacted] and was wrestled to the ground by SS Agents. This individual has been charged with [redacted] and later [redacted]

More interestingly, on April 24, 1976, a confidential source of the New York Office reported:

In regard to YIP, the New York Office has excellent informant coverage and closely monitors all activities as well as identifying participants.

In conclusion, the magnitude and effectiveness of disruptive conduct in violation of Federal Law at the DNC can not be judged at this time. It is accurate, however, to note, that certain groups and individuals are planning such conduct and their activities will be closely investigated in the future.

Informants utilized in this investigation are established sources and informants of the FBI. COMMENTS

This preliminary investigation was conducted specifically to ascertain 1) what UAF means by publically claiming it will oppose candidates, capitalism, imperialism, repression and injustice in the streets and 2) the nature of their plans to take disruptive action at the forthcoming Democratic National Convention in NYC. An evaluation of these points is as follows:

UAF was formed as the brainchild of [redacted] and originally (early 1976) operated from his mailbox and home telephone. [redacted] was closely affiliated with various YIP leaders such as [redacted] in NYC. YIP itself began planning its actions for the 1976 conventions (NYO has opened a preliminary investigation re that matter) and realized that UAF could successfully operate as an umbrella unit coordinating anti-convention actions. YIP leaders obviously felt that their group's "antics" at past conventions may serve to repel legitimate movement groups. As of May 24, 1976, UAF had successfully established a permanent office at 156 5th Avenue and holds weekly meetings on Sunday nights. There has been no specific plans made concerning disruptive conduct to date. Based upon this factor, NYO has extended the investigation for ninety days.

~~SECRET~~

This investigation is predicated upon information that the United Action Front (UAF), as an organization, has the self-described purpose to oppose, on the streets, the candidates and system of capitalism, imperialism, repression and injustice and to secure Central Park, New York, New York, in connection with the Democratic National Convention, New York, New York, July, 1976, which activities could involve violations of Title 18, United States Code (USC), Sections 2383, 2384, 2385, and 2101.

Characterizations of organizations mentioned in this report are contained in the Appendix pages, if available. All sections and paragraphs in this report are unclassified except as marked ~~(Secret) (S) or (Confidential)~~

II. ORGANIZATIONAL OBJECTIVES

The primary objective of the UAF is to coordinate efforts of different political reactionary groups to disrupt the Democratic National Convention (DNC) to be held in July, 1976, at Madison Square Garden, New York, New York. ~~(S)~~

March 1, 1976

On April 20, 1976, NY T-3 made available a copy of a UAF document entitled "76 United Action Front". This document reads in part as follows:

"Revolutionary Greetings to our Brothers and Sisters both above and underground,

"We are a group with the joy of revolution in our hearts and a love for the people that words can not express. We desire to create a solidarity of all revolutionary and progressive forces to form a strong, radical United Action Front.

~~SECRET~~

"The reason for such a United Action Front is to secure Central Park during the Democratic Convention, July 7-18, 1976. It is to take place at Madison Square Garden, New York City. We wish to use the park as a base to 'encourage the people, provoke leaps in confidence and courage, to stir the imagination, to popularize power, to agitate, to organize, to join in every way possible the people's day to day struggles'.

"The purpose of the United Action Front is to oppose, on the streets, the candidates and system of capitalism, imperialism, repression and injustice.

"Without your help and participation this can not be a United Action Front. Your immediate response to this appeal for revolutionary solidarity will make it possible to arrange our next meeting. Please send us your name, mailing address, what organization you belong to, and or represent, and your phone number.

"With revolutionary love, yours in solidarity and struggle.

P.S. The United Action Front does not have membership dues. The Front is entirely dependent on the voluntary contributions of its members and friends. Conscientious pledging will make possible strong financial support of the Front's program."

On March 31, 1976, NY T-3 made available a copy of a UAF document entitled "United Action Front 76, Dem. Convention Protest Organizational Meeting". This document reads in part as follows:

"The straight media has decided to give anti-establishment activity a low profile since Vietnam and especially since Nixon. But no one should be deluded into thinking that such activity has ceased. Rather than becoming moribund, it has altered its character. The single issue orientation of the anti-war era has evolved into a more balanced multi-issue struggle which may well have more participants than did the earlier one. Because current activity is diffused and less visible, there are many who believe that the turbulent 60's have given way to the acquiescent 70's. The 1976 Democratic Convention is an opportunity to demonstrate to the world that we are alive and well and also very active. It is important to make such a showing for a variety of reasons:

"I. The reactionary forces, believing the opposition weary and disorganized, are coming out of the woodwork to surreptitiously impose legislation such as S.1, which if passed would virtually annul the Bill of Rights and further subvert the Constitutional basis of justice.

"II. The municipal credit crush imposed by banking interests has resulted in the cutback of programs, salaries, and jobs which were insufficient in times of reputed prosperity.

"III. The defeat of Gay Rights legislation in New York City, the defeat of the Equal Rights Amendment, and the high publicity given to the anti-abortionists show clearly that hard struggles are to be fought in the sexual liberation movements.

"IV. American imperialism is as rampant as ever. The American Government is supporting the fascistic white supremacist factions in Africa. The struggle in Angola is but the beginning of a developing liberation movement in which the USA as usual will be on the wrong side.

"V. Third World people remain the victims of racism and deprivation. The forms and manifestations may change over time but the substance remains the same.

"The objective of AF 76 is to act as a catalyst for actions at the 1976 Democratic National Convention in New York City. Our purpose is to stimulate a variety of INDEPENDENT and AUTOMOUS activities. We urge you to participate and to design events of your own choosing. The function of UAF 76 will be strategic and logistic. It will arrange for contacts, publicity, facilities, permits, sound system, stage, medical support, etc.

"We hope that the various organizations participating will share specific talents and facilities they possess with the other groups, and where possible will publicize the other convention actions as well as their own. Mutual cooperation of this sort will demonstrate to ourselves and to others that there is a solidarity in our struggles and that through our diverse efforts we are seeking parallel goals."

Besides picking up the cost of renting Madison Square Garden, the city also will have to pay the bills for converting the arena into what Democratic National Chairman Robert S. Strauss yesterday called a "very warm, attractive room."

Strauss and Patrick J. Cunningham, chairman of the New York State Democratic Committee, joined Beame yesterday in introducing Preston Robert Tisch as the new chairman of a Citizens Committee for the Democratic National Convention.

Others to Be Named

Tisch, president of the Loew's Corp. and chairman of the city's convention and visitors' bureau, will head a committee of 100 prominent New Yorkers. The committee will rally public support for the convention and assist in its planning. The other members of the committee will be named by Nov. 1.

Strauss was asked at the City Hall press conference if the convention will be affected if the city goes broke. He touched off laughter by replying: "It's your position the city is not broke?" Now?"

Mayor Beame quickly joined in by commenting, "I've got the key to the city and it won't be closed down."

NEW YORK POST, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1975

Mayor Beame announced today the formation of a citizens committee to help oversee plans for housing, transporting and entertaining the delegates to the Democratic National Convention next year.

Beame said that hotelier Preston Robert Tisch, president of the Loews Corp. and chairman of the New York Convention and Visitors Bureau, would serve as chairman of the committee.

Beame designated Deputy Mayor Stanley M. Friedman as the city's convention coordinator and said the committee would be composed of 100 prominent New Yorkers, including representatives of business, labor, media and finance.

"The eyes of all the nation will be on New York City when the convention is here," Beame said in a statement, "and it is our intention, through the citizens committee, to see to it that everything runs smoothly."

Tisch said that the dele-

The UAF will serve as an umbrella organization and is, in essence, a front group for YIP. All monies utilized by the UAF come from the YIP, and UAF will continue efforts to obtain a park permit for Central Park. If this area is secured legally, then actions will be limited to a coordination of mass demonstration comprised of different groups of demonstrators as well as "street tactics" consisting of harassing convention delegates. If a park permit is not obtained, more direct actions are to be taken which consist of 1) obtaining large firecracker devices and throwing them at convention delegates and 2). obtaining a semi-toxic chemical (non-lethal but temporarily disabling) and placing same in the air conditioning system of New York hotels housing delegates. ~~(X)~~

~~SECRET~~

The Symbionese Liberation Army (SLA) was reportedly formed in the Summer of 1973, in California. An SLA document captioned, "Declaration of Revolutionary War and the Symbionese Program," dated 8/21/73, states ". . . Therefore, we of the Symbionese Federation of the SLA . . . do now, by the rights of our children and people and by force of arms and with every drop of our blood, declare revolutionary war against the fascist, capitalist class. We support by force of arms the just struggles of all oppressed people for self-determination and independence within the United States and the world, and hereby offer to all liberation movements, revolutionary workers' groups and peoples' organizations our total aid and support for the struggle for freedom and justice for all people and races . . ." The SLA has claimed credit for the 11/6/73 assassination of Dr. Marcus Foster, Oakland, California, School Superintendent; the 2/4/74 kidnaping of Patricia Campbell Hearst, daughter of newspaper publisher-owner Randolph A. Hearst; and the 4/15/74 robbery of the Hibernia Bank, San Francisco, California, in the furtherance of its revolutionary objectives. Six members of the SLA were involved in a shoot-out with the FBI and Los Angeles, California, police on 5/17/74, resulting in their deaths. Although no current information has been developed indicating the group has been active in areas other than California, other groups and individuals have surfaced claiming adherence to the SLA's revolutionary tenets.

INTERNATIONAL WORKERS PARTY

The Volume 5, October 11, 1974, issue of "International Worker", organ of the International Workers Party (IWP), reflects that the IWP is an organization whose purpose is "to lead the working class, employed and unemployed, to international socialist revolution in this immediate historical period".

On August 29, 1974 a first source advised that the IWP, comprised of former members of the National Caucus of Labor Committees (NCLC), separated itself from the group in August, 1974, to become the vanguard party of the working class. The NCLC is a violence-oriented, Marxist, revolutionary organization which aims to replace democracy in the United States with a Communist form of Government." This source further advised that while sharing many of the views of the NCLC, the IWP has criticized that group for being idealistic and paranoid and charges itself, "as communists, with the immediate necessity of leading the class to seize power from a capitalist class turned fascist by senility". The source stated that the IWP, headquartered in New York City, has begun establishing eight regional centers throughout the United States.

On May 9, 1975, a second source advised that the National Headquarters of the IWP is located at 125 West 17th Street, New York City.

CONGRESS OF AFRICAN PEOPLE

The Congress Of African People (CAP) was formed September, 1970; as a black separatist organization at the fourth annual gathering of advocates of black power in the United States. CAP's objective is the global expression of black nationalism through the promotion of Pan Africanism. CAP intends to unite all blacks by means of revolutionary programs which are to include disruption, violence, if necessary, and the establishment of independent black institutions. CAP, an umbrella-type organization, is led by black extremists.

~~SECRET~~

A CAP workshop held in September, 1970, entailed discussion by CAP National Chairman LE ROY JONES, also known as Amiri Baraka, on disruptive tactics to be used against white institutions and organizations, including the police and military. A CAP report issued in June, 1971, states, "We must seek ways and means of retarding or defeating Western imperialism." Another document issued at that time recommends establishment of a CAP military force to "form a united front with other liberation struggles in America and on an international scale."

The February 21, 1975, edition of "The Daily Free Press," an independent Boston University student newspaper, in an article entitled, "Baraka Urges Destruction of Capitalistic System," disclosed that JONES stated, "every movement in socialism takes violence. It cannot be done without violence. People must find out that capitalism must be eliminated. They have to organize and eliminate it through violence."

"The Black Scholar" newspaper, January-February, 1975 edition, published and distributed in the Sausalito, California, area, disclosed in an article captioned, "The Congress of Afrikan People: A Position Paper" by AMIRI BARAKA that "with our right of self-determination we call for union with all peoples on this land who will truly struggle to see capitalism destroyed, and the capitalist state smashed."

PRAIRIE FIRE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE

In the preface to the book "Prairie Fire" (PF) dated May 9, 1974, Weather Underground members Bernardine Dohrn, "Billy" Ayers and Jeff Jones described PF as "our (Weather Underground) political ideology - a strategy for anti-imperialism and revolution inside the imperial US....PF is based on a belief that the duty of a revolutionary is to make the revolution...the only possibilities are victory or death....Our final goal is the destruction of imperialism, the seizure of power, and the creation of socialism." The Weatherman group, now commonly referred to as the Weather Underground, was formed in June, 1969.

PF encourages the formation of study groups to discuss the book. After the publication of PF, groups calling themselves Prairie Fire Distribution Committees (PFDCs) were established in several cities including Boston, New York, and San Francisco. Thereafter, a group of PFDC members traveled through the U. S. to spread the ideology of PF and assist in forming other PFDCs. In February, 1975, PFDC published its first issue of newspaper "Groundswell."

In the Spring of 1975, "'Osawatomie,' the revolutionary voice of the WUO" (Weather Underground Organization) was published as a 36-page magazine. In it, the WUO describes itself as "...a revolutionary organization of communist women and men...responsible for over 26 armed actions against the enemy....In a single sentence, the (WUO) program means this: Mobilize the exploited and oppressed people to wage the class struggle against US imperialism, the common enemy."

In the Spring of 1975, the PFDC changed its name to PFOC. From July 11-14, 1975, the PFOC held a National Convention in Boston, establishing a national organization, with chapters in Boston, New York, Philadelphia, the State of Vermont, and the San Francisco Bay area, with additional chapters being planned in other cities.

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY/
WORKER STUDENT ALLIANCE
FORMERLY KNOWN AS STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) came into existence in June, 1962, and for the remainder of that decade functioned as the leading New Left campus-based student organization in the U.S. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy," SDS moved toward Marxist-Leninist ideological predomination with debate centering on how best to create a revolutionary youth movement. During 1968-1969, internal factionalism developed within SDS resulting in a split in June, 1969, into three organizations: Weatherman; Worker Student Alliance (WSA); and Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM). Weatherman and RYM are no longer affiliated with SDS, however, WSA continues to use the name SDS.

At the 1970 SDS/WSA National Convention, a confrontation occurred between Progressive Labor Party-(PLP) (a Marxist-Leninist organization advocating violent overthrow of the Government) oriented leadership and various caucuses opposed to PLP domination. The resulting struggle left the PLP-oriented leadership in complete control of SDS/WSA, which was headquartered in Cambridge, Massachusetts.

PLP control of SDS/WSA continued until February, 1974, when the Boston chapter of PLP split from PLP National Headquarters and formed Party for Workers Power (PWP) (a "revolutionary communist" organization advocating the violent overthrow of the government by the workers). SDS/WSA is now fragmented into two groups, one which supports PWP policy headquartered in Cambridge, Massachusetts, and the much larger group which supports PLP policy headquartered in New York City.

The below copy count indicates the current Squad 47 fugitives.

The distribution of these photographs will undoubtedly produce a large number of "look alike" situations necessitating an immediate response to assist in the identification/elimination of possible Bureau fugitives.

[redacted] Per SAC instructions, the writer and SA [redacted] have been delegated this responsibility.

A separate folder containing the NCIC fugitive printout and Computerized Criminal Histories has been created together with a fugitive indices that cross-references all fugitives by true name and known aliases. Case Agents are encouraged to add any information which may assist a possible "look alike" situation; i.e., photographic copies of fingerprints, pertinent background not in NCIC, copies of important serials, etc.

In all circumstances the 47 Supervisor and Case Agent will be advised before any action is taken.

DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATING

JULY 16-20, 1976

On May 12, 1976, a source advised that an East Coast Conference of the National Alliance Against Racist and Political Repression (NAARPR) (See Appendix) was held in New York City on May 8, 1976. The source advised that at one of the workshops held at the Conference, it was reported that the NAARPR plans to distribute leaflets at the Democratic National Convention.

The source further advised that at this workshop, an unknown white male, approximately 20 years old, stated that his organization from the East Side of New York plans to conduct a demonstration at the Democratic National Convention. The source advised that this white male was wearing an Army-type khaki jacket with the sleeves cut off. On the breast of the jacket was an insignia which was possibly the insignia of his organization. The source described this insignia as approximately 4" long and 3" wide. The bottom half of the insignia was green and the top half was red. In the middle of the insignia was a white star. This unknown white male did not indicate the name of the organization he represented.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss jurisdictional responsibilities of the agencies involved, with respect to the violations of law which could possibly occur in New York during the Bicentennial Celebration and the Democratic National Convention.

USA FISKE advised that an AUSA would be on call in his office during both the Bicentennial and Democratic Convention for opinion and/or court appearances. USA FISKE stated that telephone numbers 791-1056 and 791-1057 could be utilized in contacting the assistants during that period.

Due to the fact that US Coast Guard, the US Navy and the Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division of the Treasury Department were not represented at the meeting, a second meeting was scheduled for Wednesday, 6/30/76, at 10 a.m. at USA FISKE's office to further discuss these matters. USA FISKE stated that, in the meantime, he and his assistants would review the various federal statutes which could logically be applied to instances which might occur during the Bicentennial Celebration and Democratic Convention and resolve any problems of jurisdiction.

NOTIFICATION CLASSIFIED

DATE 4/2/68 BY SP-5RJG/SPB

An article, which appeared in the 2/2/68 issue of the "New York Post" entitled "Gaily Gaily, Hippies Going Into Politics" by William J. Eaton, indicates that a new group called "Youth International Party" with a high command of 25 "Yippies" is promoting a fun-and-games youth festival to be held in Chicago during the National Democratic Convention in late August, 1968.

A representative of the House Committee on Un-American Activities has advised that a Committee source claims that Dick Gregory, a prominent Negro comedian, and Jerry Rubin, an official of the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, are the two main functionaries of this organization, and that membership will be drawn from such organizations as the Students for a Democratic Society, Progressive Labor Party and Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee. According to the source, members of this organization have already been given the task of destroying electrical television and radio wires at the Convention and the organization allegedly has plans by which passes to gain admittance to the Convention can be obtained.

You should immediately initiate a discreet investigation of captioned organization to determine the identity of the leaders and members of this group and ascertain specific details concerning their plans to disrupt the National Democratic Convention. Insure that adequate informant coverage is established in this group to enable the Bureau to keep abreast of their future plans and activities. MCT-32 REC-32 100-448910

Submit results of your investigation in form suitable for dissemination to reach the Bureau no later than 30 days from the date of this communication.

Dear Mrs. Stegall:

Reference is made to my letter of February 13, 1968, commenting on the contents of a report of a source of the House Committee on Un-American Activities dated February 6, 1968, which had been referred to you by Mr. Edwin E. Willis, Chairman of this Committee.

Among other things, the source made an observation to the effect that some of the more radical members of an organization known as the Youth International Party and the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party could make an attempt to harm the President during the forthcoming Presidential campaign or at the Democratic National Convention scheduled for August, 1968. The source stated that of his personal knowledge, Lawrence Guyot of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party has talked about the desirability of killing the President. Lawrence Thomas Guyot, Jr., Chairman of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party, has been interviewed by Special Agents of this Bureau concerning these allegations at which time he furnished the following information:

Mrs. Mildred Stegall

The aim of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party is to take control of the Democratic Party in the State of Mississippi, as he believes the existing Democratic Party is not a true representative body of the Democrats of Mississippi. The Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party does plan to send delegates to the coming Democratic Convention in Chicago, Illinois, as it did in 1964, in an attempt to be seated as the Democratic Party representatives of the State of Mississippi. The delegates who will attend the Convention have not been chosen.

Mr. Guyot declined to state what action would be taken by the delegates of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party in the event they are not seated.

Mr. Guyot claimed that he has never heard of the Youth International Party and, therefore, knows nothing about the organization.

Mr. Guyot has issued no instructions to members of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party regarding cooperation with groups which advocate physical harm to the President of the United States. The Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party certainly has no intention of committing acts which would result in his injury. The organization has been an active group and will continue to be such, but it is not an organization that advocates or commits acts which would result in physical abuse of our elected representatives. Mr. Guyot does not know of or have liaison with any group which openly advocates such action.

He stated there have been no meetings of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party in which those participating advocated harming the President or directly threatened the President. Mr. Guyot stated that, of course, he does not know the source of the information which has created the rumors that the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party might harm the President but that there is no foundation to these rumors as the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party is attempting to become a duly recognized political party which conforms to the existing standards of conduct of the current political parties.

Information concerning this matter has been brought to the attention of Secret Service.

Sincerely yours,

NOTE:

Youth International Party,
also known as "Yippies,"
Demonstration at State University of New York,
Stony Brook, New York,
February 27, 1968.

On February 26, 1968, the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department (BSS, NYCPD), advised that at approximately 3:00 AM, February 27, 1968, a group of Yippies would travel from New York City for a mock raid at the State University of New York (SUNY), at Stony Brook, New York. On February 26, 1968, John L. Barry, Commissioner, Suffolk County Police Department, Hauppauge, New York, confirmed the above and stated that this was apparently to be a mock tactic to protest a narcotics raid on the above campus conducted by his department on January 17, 1968, when thirty students were arrested on narcotics charges.

On February 27, 1968, the Intelligence Squad, Suffolk County Police Department, furnished a throwaway leaflet which was distributed at the SUNY. It contains a heading: Youth International Party, 32 Union Square, East, New York, New York, with a caption "Yippie Cops Raid Stoneybrook, Stoneybrook University, Stoneybrook, New York, February 27, 1967 - 6:00 am." This release read as follows:

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

February 27, 1968.

"This is a happy raid. These indicted Stoneybrook students are being sentenced to a joyful concert by the Fugs and a performance by the Pageant Players. There will even be dancing in the halls before classes. We have found balloons, candy, flowers and other goodies in their rooms which we feel are sufficient grounds for these arrests. We wish to make it clear at this time that there has been absolutely no complicity on the part of the University Administration with the Yippie police. As a matter of fact, they are still asleep. However, the student body shows every indication of awakening.

"We are trying to contrast the authoritarian, gestapo-like behavior of the Suffolk County Police with fun and peacefulness. The failure of the school administration to back up the students in the face of the recent police abuse has created a vacuum. It is being filled by a growing number of students who are articulating and working toward a community which will be a place where spirits and minds can be free."

The Suffolk County Police Department advised that the group, most dressed in "hippie" attire, arrived at the SUNY campus at approximately 6:00 AM, February 27, 1968, but were not permitted to enter the campus on the instructions of the University administration. They gathered in the vicinity of the main gate of the campus where they sang songs and played music and danced. The gathering was orderly. No arrests were made. The group dispersed at approximately 11:45 AM. At that time, at the request of the English Department, a small group was permitted to enter the campus under the sponsorship of individual students for the purpose of putting on a performance for the English Department.

Dear Sirs:

I was recently informed of a group known as Y.I.R. . My informant mentioned that there are $\frac{1}{4}$ million members in the United States, that they are violently against the Vietnam war, and that on November 1, 1968, they are going to make their move which will effect the whole United States.

Would you please let me know whether this has any correspondence to reality and what the official attitude is toward this group.

Youth International Party

This press release stated in part as follows:

"A group of 25 artists, writers, and musicians have agreed to participate in the founding of the Youth International Party, or YIP, today. YIP will stage a massive Youth Festival this August in Chicago which may just coincide with the Democratic National Convention--although the two are, of course, entirely unrelated."

This throwaway also contained the following statement from YIP:

"Join us in Chicago in August for an international festival of youth, music, and theatre. Rise up and abandon the creeping meatball! Come all you rebels, youth spirits, rock minstrels, truth-seekers, peacock-freaks, poets, barricade-jumpers, dancers, lovers, and artists!"

"It is summer. It is the last week in August, and the NATIONAL DEATH PARTY meets to bless Lyndon Johnson. We are there! There are 500,000 of us dancing in the streets, throbbing with amplifiers and harmony. We are making love in the parks. We are reading, singing, laughing, printing newspapers, groping, and making a mock convention, and celebrating the birth of FREE AMERICA in our own time.

"A new spirit explodes in the land. Things are bursting in music, poetry, dancing, newspapers, movies, celebration, magic, politics, theatre, and life-styles. All these new tribes will gather in Chicago. We will be completely open. Everything will be free. Bring blankets, tents, draft-cards, body-paint, Mr. Leary's Cow, food to share, music, eager skin, and happiness. The threats of LBJ, Mayor Daley, and J. Edgar Freako will not stop us. We are coming! We are coming from all over the world!

"The lift of the American spirit is being torn asunder by the forces of violence, decay, and the napalm-cancer fiend. We demand the Politics of Ecstasy! We are the delicate spores of the new fierceness that will change America. We will create our own reality, we are Free America! And we will not accept the false theatre of the Death Convention.

"We will be in Chicago. Begin preparations now! Chicago is yours! Do it!"

IV. Activities

On March 6, 1968, the first source made available an undated leaflet of YIP entitled "People, Get Ready" which states as follows:

"The leaders of the National Democratic Party are planning to meet in Chicago in August; there to enact, for the television audience, all the drama and excitement of an American Political Convention, culminating, it is understood, in the nomination of L. Johnson for President of the United States, and Leader of the Free World.

"In the face of this act of sado-masochistic folly the free youth of America will simultaneously hold an enormous International Youth Festival in Chicago; there will be music playing and people swaying, dancing in the streets. Johnson and his delegates, locked in their slaughterhouse conventionhall theatre, will make ugly speeches and play ugly campaign music, while we, the living breathing youth of the world, will make the city a theatre, and every restaurant Alice's. Already, throughout parks and vacant lots in and around Chicago, agents of the Potheads' Benevolent Association have planted hundreds of thousands of pot seeds. The long hot summer of 1968 is expected to produce ideal weather for marijuana growing, and most of the crop should be ready for smoking by the end of August. Free people, free pot, free music, free theatre; a whole new culture will manifest itself to the world, rising from the ashes of America. Rock groups will be performing in the parks; newspapers will be printed in the streets; provos and police will play cops and robbers in the department stores; Democrats and dope fiends will chase each other through hotel corridors. Longboats filled with Vikings will land on the shores of Lake Michigan, and discover America! Chicago will become a river of wild onions!"

On March 6, 1968, the first source made available an undated leaflet from YIP, 32 Union Square, New York City, which stated in part as follows: (u)

On March 6, 1968, the first source made available a copy of a reprint of an article written by Jerry Rubin for the Underground Press, entitled "Notes from an Era Yippizolean" which stated as follows concerning the planned activities of YIP:

"1968 is the year of the'yippees.'

"A yippee is anyone who wants to be. A yippee! sounds like the name. Say it loud, and you'll see what I mean. Yippee! Yippee!!

"The yippees will be in Chicago this August for the youth festival, or Youth International Party, YIP.

"The yippees were born at the Pentagon last October, although they have been developing in the womb of Mother America since the late 1950's.

"The yippees are the children of the middle class, children who refuse to 'grow up' refuse to accept the world their parents created. The yippees have had white middle-class America, and they didn't like it.

"A yippee is a stoned-idealist, moved by a vision of a future utopia. He is a romantic. It is not fear which moves the yippee; it is faith and hope.

"The yippees are fighting for their own freedom. The yippees know in their bones what America has done -- rivers of blood, man against man, death of spirit, denial of dignity. The yippee is free because he is engaged and committed to change.

"The yippee sees America as a huge prison, with her institutions (bureaucracies, office buildings, armies, universities, schools) as bars. The yippees are drop-outs from that world. They were raised on horror stories of Eichmann, the bureaucratic cop-out.

"The yippees are with the Vietnamese, peasant guerrillas wherever they are, and the black and other struggling people of America in this mid-20th century saga of the battle of Man V. S. Machine.

"To America's insanity, the yippies ask: 'Why?'
Yippies are naive.

"The answers?

"You're freaky-looking."

"The Chinese are coming."

"Watch out for the commies."

"Get a bath."

"The yippee is not busy working within the system or trying to explain his actions to the Establishment or the middle-class mentality. He is too concerned with creating a clear alternative, an underground, an opposition.

"He is involved in a cultural revolution. In the process he is seducing the 10-year-olds with happenings, community, youth power, dignity, underground media, music, legends, marijuana, action, myth, excitement, a new style.

"The yippies are out there blocking traffic, throwing blood, burning money, tying up government telephone wires, milling in, (obscene) the draft, throwing live snakes into Dow Chemical executive cocktail parties.

"You probably don't agree with this description of yippee, but that's because you are a yippee, and you have your own fantasy.

x x x x x x x x x

"The New Left created the teach-in, the hippy created the be-in, and the yippee is creating the do-in. America's first youth festival will be a do-in and it will take place Aug. 25 to Aug. 30 in Chicago's Grant Park.

"If that's the same time the National Death Party meets to crown LBJ, there's no coincidence! The world will see what the youth of America thinks of the Death Party and its war games. The youth festival will be a living alternative and you can take your choice.

"Imagine the sight: thousands of yippies, from 200,000 up, making their way to Chicago by thumb, magical mystery tour, bus, bicycle, car, truck, foot -- from big town " and small hamlet -- carrying sleeping bags, guitars, blankets, food -- coming together in the middle of the country at the end of the summer for a super-creative energy explosion and information exchange.

"It will be a total multi-media experience. For six days we will be together sharing and learning. Every morning all our money can be thrown into big barrels to buy enough food to feed everyone. Our own Alice's Restaurant! And that tells America how we thinks the needs of human beings should be solved -- everything free.

"The music will be free. The performers will be playing for their community. Definite already are Country Joe and the Fish, The Fugs, Arlo Guthrie, Phil Ochs, the United States of America band, Pageant Players, Bread and Puppet Theater, Allen Ginsberg, Timothy Leary, Paul Krassner and the Steve Miller Blues Band. Invitations are now going to Dylan, Eric Burdon and the Animals, the Monkeys, the Jefferson Airplane, Richie Havens, Simon and Garfunkel, the Doors, the Who, the Blue's Project, Beatles, Mothers of Invention, Mamas and Papas, Janis Ian, the Cream, and the Smothers Brothers to name just a few. "Walk across Grant Park at any time during the youth festival and you'll find:

"Free mikes and soapboxes for anyone who wants to rap, and a . . .

"Free mimeo for anyone who has something to pass out.

"The underground papers will come from all over the country to Grant Park to publish a daily paper for the festival. They'll do it right in the park and teach people how to start and do their own paper.

"Continuous workshops on the draft, and how to end it will be held.

"A real school for drop-outs will appear, along with art of the streets, art for and from the people. You name it. You do it. Everyone participates -- every man is a creator.

"We'll have yippies dressed like Vietcong walking the streets and shaking hands like ordinary American politicians. We'll infiltrate right-wing crowds with short-hair yippee veterans who at the proper moment will blow minds with speeches like: 'Now, these yippies have something to say ...'

"Guerrilla theater groups from all over the country will be there. The day before LBJ arrives in Chicago we will announce to the overground press that LBJ will arrive at 2 p.m. at O'Hara Airport. And it will be our own LBJ who will be greeted enthusiastically by the yippies, honored by a motorcade through Chicago, and then on to a hotel for a press conference to announce America's withdrawal from Vietnam.

"Yippies plan to paint their cars like cabs, pick up delegates, and drop them off in Wisconsin. We are infiltrating the hotels with bellboys and cooks. We are also infiltrating the press.

"We'll have our own theater-convention and nominate Bancroft P. Hogg, a pig made out of vegetables, for President and LBJ for Vice-President. After Hogg is nominated, we will kill him and then eat him. We will say to America: 'You nominate a President and he eats the people. At our convention we nominate a President and the people eat him!'

"The youth festival will dramatize the nation's most massive collective and individual acts of resistance. One night 100,000 people will burn draft cards at the same moment, with the fires spelling out 'Beat Army.' The next day all the pyromaniacs will send signed letters to the government confessing their act, and will encourage more young men to follow them.

"This do-in will be unique in that it must be a bottom-up revolution to succeed. You are needed to work on it to make it happen. It will not be done for you. We have opened up a coordinating office, at YIP (room 607, 32 Union Square East, New York, 10003, New York, phone (212) 982-5090 and we are there coordinating information.

"The Chicago power structure, especially Mayor Daley, is not going to be thrilled about our using Grant Park! But with hundreds of thousands of us, what are they going to do? It is our human right and we are confident of receiving a permit to use Grant Park.

"That week in Chicago will be a living theater of America. King will be there, also Gregory, also Spock and the peace movement. The Democrats will probably have to travel from hotel to convention hall by helicopter. Johnson will be nominated under military guard, under the protection of Army bayonets. Even if Chicago does not burn, the mass paranoia and guilt of the government will force them to bring thousands of troops, and the more troops, the better the theater.

"A lot of troops will have to stay and watch us (long hair freaks them out), diverting troops from the black community. And the yippies, being wanderers, will be all over the city.

"That Lydon Johnson and his Democratic Party cannot rule this country is becoming clearer every day. The choice is between the life of youth and the death of the Establishment. For those who don't see that now, Chicago will be an aye-opener."

On March 6, 1968, the first source made available an undated three page leaflet of YIP, 32 Union Square, New York City, entitled "Yippie Announcement! Yippie!" This leaflet states in part as follows:

"YIP is planning a 'festival of life', an 'international youth festival' from Sunday, August 25 to Friday, August 30 in Chicago, Illinois. This youth festival will take place at the same time as the National Death (Democratic) Convention in Chicago. It will be a contrast in life styles. Ours will be an affirmation of life; theirs is d-e-a-t-h.

"The festival of life is being organized by a new coalition of forces called the 'Youth International Party' or 'YIP'. All the people who come to the youth festival are 'yippies!'. Chicago police have estimated 'anywhere from 100,000 to two million'. We concur.

"The youth festival is unique in the following respects:

"1. In addition to the protest of the Death Party and its policies, the festival presents a living, cultural, spiritual alternative.

"2. The festival will be an artistic event and involves artists in its conception and execution.

"3. The festival will last six days and will be a living experience for those who come, not just a one or two-day protest.

"4. The festival will be a participatory event, a creative 'do-in.' Activities and resources will be planned so that everyone who comes will become involved and will grow through the experiences.

"5. Everything will be free. This will be the nation's first major free music festival. Our goal is that food also will be free at the festival -- people will pool their money to provide free food. The festival will express our view that the needs of life should be free. We will demonstrate this through action -- through sharing.

"The following are some of the activities that will occur at the youth festival:

--music. The following performers have already agreed to appear: Country Joe and the Fish; Blood, Sweat and Tears; Arlo Guthrie; Len Chandler; Phil Ochs; Janis Ian; the Fugs; United States of America electric band; Peter Seeger; American Expeditionary Force; The Sunshine Company; The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band; Richie Havens; Dick Gregory; Barbara Dane; Jim and Jean; Judy Collins; Steve Miller Blues Band.

"A number of performers are preparing a call soon to be widely publicized asking all artists to celebrate Aug. 25-30 as 'affirmation of life' week and not to accept any commercial bookings; and instead to come to Chicago to perform for the youth festival.

"--A major emphasis of the youth festival will be on guerrilla theater. Many interesting things are planned: we will have our own LBJ who will end the war; there may be a march of the oppressed of the world; and body paint and costumes for all who want them. The Bread and Puppet Theatre and the Pageant Players of New York are preparing happenings. YIP is asking guerrilla theater groups from all over America to come to Chicago that week to 'do your thing...Chicago is a stage...it will be a natural energy center for guerrilla theater.' If interested, write the coordinator for guerrilla theater, Richard Schechner, editor, Drama Review, New York University, 32 Washington Place, N.Y. 10003, N.Y., or call (212) 598-2596.

"--A daily underground paper will be published by the underground papers and Liberation News Service.

"--Discussions and demonstrations will take place on the issue of the draft. One night 100,000 people may burn draft cards, with the fires spelling: 'Beat Army.'

"--A mock convention will happen.

"--And: free mikes for people to rap in Hyde Park fashion, mimos also, and hundreds of small discussions on hundreds of topics.

"Youth festivals will take place in countries all over the world the same week.

"Our yippie calls are:

"'Rise up and abandon the creeping meatball!'

"'We demand the politics of ecstasy!'

"Many people are working actively to build the festival including Paul Krassner, [redacted] Timothy Leary, Allen Ginsburg, Vaughn Meader, [redacted]

"A support committee is being formed in Chicago of clergymen and lawyers to negotiate with the city for permits to use park facilities. We are confident of receiving the necessary permits. The more people that are planning to come to Chicago, the more likely will be our chances.

"The youth festival is completely open. There is no 'central committee' making decisions on policy. We are working to get people there, to organize the best sound system ever, and the necessary resources. Form your own committee, hand out your own releases, plan your own activities. In fact, yippie will not happen if you personally don't get involved. Become a yippie organizer in your own city (and write us about your work)! Do it! Now.

"Because of the tremendous numbers of people expected, local groups should begin now securing their transportation -- buses, trucks, bikes, etc. You might consider dramatic bus, truck, car, bike, walking caravans across the country to Chicago! Bring sleeping bags, blankets, tents, and props.

"Money is desperately needed to provide staging, sound system, lighting, props, publicity and other resources needed to make the festival a success. If you can, make checks payable to Youth International Party and sent to our office.

"Literature, two multi-color posters by [redacted] and the Group Image and YIPPIE buttons and stickers are available through our office.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1951, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.

MAY 2 MOVEMENT

A source advised on March 3, 1965, as follows:

The May 2 Movement (M2M) formerly known as the May 2 Committee was organized on March 14, 1964, at New Haven, Connecticut, by a group of young people participating in a symposium "Socialism in America" being held at Yale University. The original aim of the M2M was to plan and execute a demonstration in New York City on May 2, 1964, demanding withdrawal of United States troops from Viet Nam.

The M2M was dominated and controlled by the Progressive Labor Party (PLP) and had for its aim and purpose the embarrassment of the United States Government by meetings, rallies, picketing demonstrations and formation of university level clubs at which a Marxist-Leninist oriented approach and analysis was taken of United States domestic and foreign policies. This source advised on May 19, 1965, that the headquarters of the M2M was 640 Broadway, New York City, Room 307.

A second source advised on February 9, 1966, that the M2M was officially dissolved as an organization on February 6, 1966, at a meeting held on the same date in New York City, by the leadership of M2M and the Progressive Labor Party.

The PLP will have as its ultimate objective the establishment of a militant working class movement based on Marxism-Leninism.

The "New York Times" City Edition, Tuesday, April 20, 1965, page 27, reported that a new party of "revolutionary socialism" was formally founded on April 18, 1965, under the name of the PLP. The PLP was described as an outgrowth of the PLM. Its officers were identified as MILTON ROSEN, New York, President, and WILLIAM EPTON of New York, and MORT SCHEER of San Francisco, Vice Presidents. A 20-member National Committee was elected to direct the party until the next convention.

According to the article, "The Progressive Labor Movement was founded in 1962 by Mr. ROSEN and Mr. SCHEER after they were expelled from the Communist Party of the United States for assertedly following the Chinese Communist line".

The PLP publishes "Progressive Labor," a bi-monthly magazine, "Challenge", a monthly New York City newspaper, and "Spark", a West Coast newspaper.

The delegates were told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. Internal Security - Miscellaneous

On March 18, 1968, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available a copy of a leaflet from the Youth International Party (YIP) announcing that a "Yip-In" would be held in Grand Central Railroad Station, New York City at midnight on March 22 (1968).

This leaflet described the proposed "Yip-In" as follows:

"It's a spring mating service celebrating the Equinox, a back-scratching party, a roller-skating rink, a theatre....with you, performer and audience. Get acquainted with other Yippies now, for other yiptivities and Chicago Y.I.P. Festival this summer.

"Bring:

Bells, Flowers, Beads, Music, Radios, Pillows, Eats, Love and Peace.

"Meet later on at Sheep Meadow in Central Park to YIP up the Sun."

On March 22, 1968, at approximately 11:30 p.m. Special Agents (SAs) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) observed approximately 3,000 hippie-type individuals congregating in Grand Central Railroad Station in New York City.

These individuals, who were dressed in costumes and other hippie-type attire, were singing, dancing and throwing balloons with the word "Yippie" written on them. Periodically such slogans as "We Got Power" and "Peace Now" were chanted. Two banners were displayed, one captioned "Yippie" and the other captioned "Liberty, Equality, Fraternity". In addition, "Yippie" buttons were worn by many of the individuals.

At approximately midnight, a number of individuals climbed on top of the information booth located in the center of the Railroad Station Concourse. These individuals began throwing railroad timetables into the air and broke the hands off of the four faces of a large clock located on the top of the information booth.

At approximately 12:50 a.m. on March 23, 1968, New York City Police charged the group of individuals who had climbed on top of the information booth and made a number of arrests.

At approximately 3:00 a.m., on March 23, 1968, one-half of the individuals left Grand Central Station and began to walk up 5th Avenue to the Sheep Meadow in Central Park, New York City. At approximately 4:00 a.m., the remainder of the individuals left Grand Central Station and proceeded to the Sheep Meadow in Central Park.

At the Sheep Meadow, the individuals sang songs, danced and roamed around. On several occasions, small fires were started by individuals with slats broken from snow fences in the Sheep Meadow for warmth. Several individuals were arrested for damaging the snow fences in the Sheep Meadow.

The individuals continued their activities in the Sheep Meadow until approximately 6:30 a.m. on March 23, 1968 when the majority dispersed.

Youth International Party

Detective [redacted] of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, advised on March 23, 1968, that approximately 60 individuals were arrested during the activities in the Grand Central Railroad Station, and three individuals were arrested in the Sheep Meadow in Central Park.

The Chicago "Sun-Times", a Chicago daily newspaper, Page 20, dated March 26, 1968, contained an article captioned, "On The Old Camp Ground - Ask Permit For Yippies To Tent-In At Grant Park", by [redacted]. The article states in substance: Jerry Rubin, an organizer of the Yippies (a New York based artist group promoting "fun and game" Youth Festival at Chicago during the time of the National Democratic Convention) and a radical from the old movement at the University of California at Berkeley, advised that [redacted] who is not a Yippie and who operates an LSD line, a telephone emergency rescue service for acid heads on bad trips, acted without authority on March 25, 1968, when [redacted] by letter requested the Chicago Park District, Chicago, Illinois, to make available Grant Park, Chicago, to the Yippies during the week of the forthcoming August, 1968 National Democratic Convention.

Rubin said that the Yippies will make an official request of their own on Tuesday, March 26, 1968, to the Chicago Park District for a permit to utilize Grant Park, Chicago, for a six-day "celebration of life" during the week of the forthcoming August, 1968 National Democratic Convention.

Rubin indicated the anti-war groups which are making plans to demonstrate in connection with the National Democratic Convention "have nothing." "We're going to have a surfacing of the underground for six days. It will be a cultural alternative to the death policies of the Convention and American society."

Rubin said that the Chicago kick-off for the Yippie festival came Monday at a benefit for "The Seed", a local underground newspaper, at the Cheetah, 1106 West Lawrence, Chicago, a youth night club. Some of the proceeds from this benefit, which featured 11 rock bands, will go to the Yippies.

According to the "Sun-Times" article, [redacted] announced Chicago plans of the Yippies last week at a press conference in New York. She said that the Yippies were summoning young people to Chicago for a "testimonial of life" by providing free, groovy, entertainment. Entertainers committed to come to Chicago, according to the Yippies, include Country Joe and the Fish; Blood, Sweat and Tears; [redacted] and the Sunshine Company and the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band.

The "Sun-Times" article stated that a Yip-in at Grand Central Station in New York this past Saturday night became a fiasco when police used night sticks to break up a crowd of 3,000 young people summoned there by Yip.

According to the "Sun-Times" article New York police reported 57 persons were arrested on charges ranging from felonious assault and criminal mischief to resisting arrest and disorderly conduct. Two youths were hospitalized with concussions and five policemen were injured.

The "Sun-Times" article stated that Rubin and Paul Krassner, editor of "The Realist Magazine" and a Yip organizer, were observers at a conference of anti-war groups held this past weekend near Lake Villa, Illinois.

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'Frank Wilkinson was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 Wilkinson was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee."

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY

The Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) as it is known today, came into being at a founding convention held at Port Huron, Michigan, in June, 1962. The SDS is an association of young people on the left and has a current program of protesting the draft, promoting a campaign for youth to develop a conscientious objector status, denouncing United States intervention in the war in Vietnam and to "radically transform" the university community and provide for its complete control by students. GUS HALL, General Secretary, Communist Party, USA, when interviewed by a representative of United Press International in San Francisco, California, on May 14, 1965, described the SDS as a part of the "responsible left" which the Party has "going for us." At the June, 1965, SDS National Convention, an anticomunist proviso was removed from the SDS constitution. In the October 7, 1966, issue of "New Left Notes," the official publication of SDS, an SDS spokesman stated that there are some communists in SDS and they are welcome. The national headquarters of this organization as of April 18, 1967, was located in Room 206, 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

On April 9, 1968, a source advised that the Youth International Party (Yip) planned to hold a sit-in in the New York City Mayor's Office at 11:00 AM, on April 10, 1968, to demand the use of the Sheep Meadow in Central Park, New York City, on April 14, 1968, for a Yip-Out (music festival). ~~(S)~~ (u)

On April 10, 1968, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (SAS, FBI), from approximately 11:00 AM until 1:45 PM, observed about forty hippie-type individuals, most of whom were wearing "Yippie" buttons, meet with representatives of Mayor John V. Lindsay outside of City Hall, New York City, to request a permit for the use of the Sheep Meadow in Central Park, New York City, on Easter Sunday, April 14, 1968, for a Yip-Out (music festival).

After much discussion, and an intermission of one hour from 12:15 PM to 1:15 PM, the group was advised by Sidney Davidoff, Assistant to Mayor John V. Lindsay, that a permit would be granted to them by the New York City Parks Department for the use of the Sheep Meadow in Central Park, New York City, on April 14, 1968, for their Yip-Out (music festival).

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.

FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECIC also have been identified under oath as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

'To defend the cases of Communist law-breakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.'
